

Doors of Perception

25

Areté

THE DOORS OF PERCEPTION

Queens College

1995 Arete

"If the doors of perception were cleansed everything would appear to man as it is, infinite.
For man has closed himself up, till he sees all things thro' narrow chinks of his cavern."

— William Blake

Queens College 1900 Selwyn Avenue Charlotte, NC 28274

The Doors

COLLEGE . . . It's the time in our lives when we go through so many changes in who we are and what we believe, who our friends are, whom to trust, and when to stop partying and get down to the business of education. Most of all, perhaps, it is not our own personal worlds that are changing, but our perceptions of the world.

Right — Preparing the weekend's festivities, Liddy Smirnov, Trace Hogan, and Amanda Pemberton plan for Perspective Weekend Campus Tours.

An afternoon picnic outside of Trexler Center would not have been the same without the entertainment provided by Chris Prestridge and Ched Lohr.

Left — College is all about expression. Tara Guertin, Brian Watson, and Suzy Sulsona vent their frustrations on a Friday night at the hypnotist show.

of Perception

Above — In desperate need of a study break, Kristina Dickinson and Andrew Brownfield share a laugh outside of the Liberal Learning lecture.

Left — Spending time with friends, food, and good music, Julie Janorschke, April Siegel, and Rosalie Miklos make the most of their weekend.

Although some students are on the go, others, like Rob Spidle, choose to sit on the sidewalk and watch the grass grow.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

People Page 22

Student Life Page 60

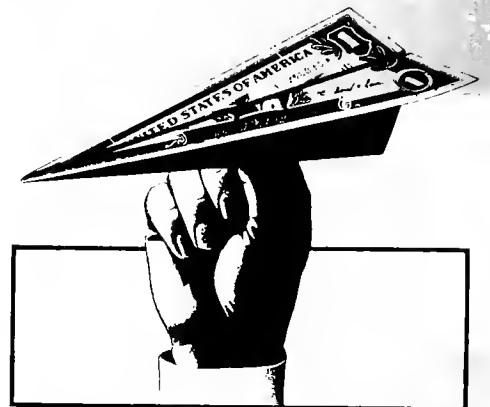

Academics Page 80

Sports Page 94

Organizations Page 120

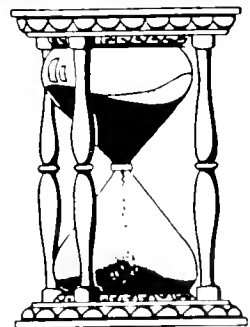

Closing and Ads Page 168

BREAK ON THROUGH . . .

"Our destiny, our being's heart and home,
Is with infinitude, and only there;
With hope it is, hope that can never die,
Effort, and expectation, and desire,
And something evermore about to be."

— William Wordsworth

Campus Life . . .

"On that best portion of a good man's life,
His little, nameless, unremembered acts of kindness and love."

— Wordsworth

Right — Stacey Oliver will be leaving Queens College when she receives her Master's Degree in May. Amy Stout, April Amos, and Martha Heisler will really miss her!!

Freshman Rachel Gittner enjoys Ben and Jerry's ice cream at Dr. Wireman's house during Orientation 1994.

Left — Janna VanWinkle, Hope Yancey, and Angie Page take a study break to rest on the steps of Trexler Center during a picnic.

Junior thespian, Tiffany Parker, practices her lines during a rehearsal of the fall production of "Out of Sight . . . Out of Murder," which played to a packed house in October.

Left — Suzy Sulsona and Graciano Nunez got the chance to be someone else for a few nights when they both starred in the Black Box Theater production of "Men and Women."

Taij Johnson fell victim to the powers of hypnotist, Chuck Milligan. The event was sponsored by College Union Board

WHAT A . . .

Stacy and Jason . . . what a couple!

Jake Ray . . . what an intellect!

Dean Gere . . .

Joe Mazzo . . . What a keeper!

Billy O. . . . What a sport!!

The Q.B.'s . . . What a bunch of B-----!

QUEENS COLLEGE

What a Mediator!

Lariza and Julie... what growing minds!

Dixie... what a good pointer!!

Munich... what a place!

Emily... what a smile!

Krysta Kavanaugh, the leader of Playfair, gathers a group of Freshmen to plan a surprise act for the rest of the audience.

Freshman Mandy Alford runs through the PRO support group to start of an exciting night at Playfair. The entrance column was designed to get everyone pumped up and ready to have fun at Playfair.

Playfair is an important part of orientation. It is a perfect opportunity for freshmen to get to know one another. Michael Hope Jones and Kim McElrath take this opportunity to talk.

At the Focus on Your Future session during orientation, Dr. Allegretti talks about the fields of psychology and sociology with interested Freshmen.

Welcome

Orientation 1994
Welcome to Queens!

New students blast off their Queens experience during Orientation 1994.

The journey to the future begins at orientation. These first five days of one's experience at Queens are seldom forgotten. It all begins with the hectic move into the dorm and the sad, or maybe happy farewells to parents and family. The week is full of programs and activities to help new students get settled into their new home.

Programs range from Focus on Your Future and academic advising to fun activities like Karaoke and Playfair which give new students a chance to let loose and get to know their classmates.

Highlights of the week include the President and Mrs. Wireman's reception and dessert with the faculty advisor. Once orientation is over it's time to get into the swing of things. Hopefully orientation gives new students the background they need to slide into their journey at Queens with ease.

During Playfair, everyone becomes part of Playfair support group. Carey Malaluan seems to be receiving a lot of encouragement from her designated group.

President Wireman welcomes the Class of 1998 to his home on Selwyn Avenue and invites everyone to help themselves to some Ben & Jerry's ice cream.

1995 Arete Dedication

The staff of the Arete wishes to express their heartfelt congratulations to Dr. Tim Burson who has been chosen by the Class of 1995 as the recipient of the Arete dedication. Winners are based on teacher-student rapport, teaching methods, leadership, and campus involvement. Dr. Burson can be found in the classrooms of the Dana building lecturing on the Keynesian theory and supply and demand to both traditional and New College students. However Dr. Funk, as he is affectionately called by his students, is often seen announcing like no one else can at Royals basketball games. Also, as the advisor to OASIS, Dr. Burson gives his time and creativity to help fundraise and make the world a better place for the less fortunate. Dr. Burson is also dedicated to his lovely wife and child. Thank you, Dr. Burson, for teaching, leading, motivating, and inspiring.

— Kristen Koester

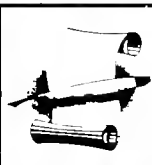

“Enough of Science and of Art;
Close up those barren leaves;
Come forth, and bring with you a heart
That watches and receives.”

— Wordsworth

Sidelines

Dr. Burson also received the 1994 Faculty Teaching Award which was presented at the Awards Day Convocation, April 18 in Belk Chapel. Congratulations!!

Central Europe Tour

The Central Europe group was led by some of the best leaders at Queens College, including Mr. Martin, Paul Nitche, Dr. Kobre, Suzanne McKinney, Dr. Shealy, and even Dean Burton and Dr. Wireman. This lucky group of people traveled to Germany, Austria, and the Czech Republic. Activities included trips to museums, the opportunity to go on the "Sound of Music" tour in Salzburg, and a visit to the ballet of "Sleeping Beauty" in Prague. Many members of the group felt that the best part was meeting the President of the Czech Republic, Vaclav Havel and having him welcome them to his country. Others enjoyed the famous Hausf Brau Haus in Germany. Meg Keiley said, "The entire trip was a wonderful experience!"

— Ali Permakoff

► Lorraine, Susan, Diana, Julie, Shelley, Kelly, Jen, Meg, and Kate enjoy a visit to an Irish Pub in Berlin!!

▲ This beautiful fountain located in East Berlin was a wonderful place for everyone to stop for a photo.

◀ High atop a mountain in Prague, members of the group had a chance to meet Czech Republic President, Václav Havel.

▲ Above: The salt mines in Salzburg were both informative and very daring, as shown by Kelly, Julie, and Meg.

◀ Above Left: The Haus Brau Haus brought many smiles to the faces of the Central Europe Group.

▼ Below Left: Dr. Kobre enjoyed seeing the house of a very famous Czech writer, Franz Kafka.

“

“If we all chip in $11,000 we could buy a castle!”

”

◀ Above: Julie and Shelley rest outside a museum in Munich and think about their plans for the evening.

"Rome-ing"

On May 5, 1994, Dr. and Mrs. Good and Dr. Thompson accepted the challenge of guiding and chaperoning 21 of Queens' most interesting students through the country of ITALIA!! The Italy tour allowed the group to journey from the beautiful mountains of the Amalfi Coast to the never-ending waterways of Venice. Not knowing just how interesting the trip was going to be when they boarded the plane to Frankfurt, Germany where a layover proved most interesting.

The first stay for this group was in Praiano, where students took advantage of wonderful surrounding cities, such as Amalfi, Paestum, and Pompeii. Whenever students traveled, they took a bus. Many felt that riding around the curvy mountains was scary or unsafe.

Florence had its own entertainment in the form of Coco Loco where many students became regulars.

Jennifer Overcash quenches her thirst with some water after the long hike up Mt. Vesuvius. No one shared water that day!

Outside the hotel in Venice, Ali, KT, Emily, Alex, Heather, J. Teri, and Dawn await one of their free meals.

Italy

The Italy Crew

Next the group traveled to Rome — culture shock. Some of the bigger sights visited there were the Colosseum, the Vatican, and the Pantheon. Rome could best be described as the New York City of Italy. Later, Florence was the place to buy leather and gold. Individuals were able to wait in line to see Michelangelo's "David," which turned out to be smaller than some expected and Dr. Thompson took a group to hike the Cinque Terre. Venice was the final city, and students had to travel almost everywhere by boat or gondola. Alex Thomas added, "It was the best experience ever and we still live it when the Goodes have us over for reminiscing parties."

— Ali Permakoff

Though they were tired, Athena, Tisha, Stacey, and Amy enjoyed the walkabout in Frankfurt, Germany.

Is it one of the Vestil Virgins? Of course not. It's just Ken Higgins!!

QUOTABLE QUOTABLE QUOTABLE QUOTE

"Who is gonna see this video anyway?"

Alpine Experiences

The group of students who journeyed to Alpine Europe, led by Cathy Bowers, Dr. Miller, and Dr. Rhodes will go down in Queens History, having had a tremendously unfortunate accident. The good news is that the travelers didn't let this ruin their entire trip. Instead, they dealt with the situation as a family and became a lot closer.

The group traveled to Munich, Murren, Salzburg, and Bahn. Many of them said they had the absolute time of their lives. Some highlights of the trip included the Hausf Brau Haus and the famous mountain in Switzerland which has served host to all students who have ever gone on the Alpine tour. It was an experience they will remember forever.

— Ali Permakoff

► Right — Tracy, Gwen, Jen, and Meg enjoy the Swiss Alps from a mile above the city of Murren.

▲ The Alpine Europe Crew 1994

◀ Left — "Which way do I go?" This is what Jennifer Houck, Andy Fouhy, Meg Jones, and Tracy Johnston seem to be asking.

▲ Above — Dr. Miller and Dr. Rhodes prepare to fill the group in on the day's agenda ... busy, busy!!

◀ Above Left — Melanie Getchel braids Cathy Bowers' hair for their day on the town. It was quite a bonding moment!

◀ Below Left — Andy and Tim spend their day's free time sleeping while waiting for the bus to go to the next city.

Above — Tim, Tim, and Jason listen carefully to the schedule of activities and template what lies ahead.

The 1995 Homecoming Court:
Amanda Pemberton, Matt Dilworth, Estrica Clayton, Robin Walker,
Tishani Doshi, Adi Choudhury, Liz
Childs, Lindsey Clark, Nikkeia Kerr, Errol Rorbacher, Keeron Emmanuel,
Suzy Sulsona, Maurice Sadler, Pritta
Luoto, Bill Kennedy, Mara Apple, Tisha Edwards (Queen), Travis Wallace (King), Diana Archer, Clayton Coley, Roalaie Miklos, Tim Shields,
Jason Trigiani, and Jen Sweeney.

The court is chosen by various organizations around campus and the king and queens, who must be seniors, are voted on by the entire student body. Ms. Edwards is Queens' second Homecoming Queen, while Mr. Wallace is our first Homecoming King.

At half-time of the exciting game, the Royals led Erskine. Accompanied by Coach Lloyd, the players head to their locker room to prepare their strategy for the second half.

Junior Yogi Leo shows off his jumping ability by dunking this basket in the Royals pre-game warmup.

Rex made his rounds at the Homecoming game. Here, he takes the time to put a smile on Matthew Norchi's face.

Seniors, Roger Wilson and Ken Higgins are proud to show off their Royals School Spirit and root their favorite team on to victory as Stacey Joyner and Jennifer Smith look on.

The Spirit of Homecoming 1995

Royals Kick Some Erskine Butt in 'Da Oven

Homecoming '95 was a big success for the Royals this year. School spirit flooded Queens on the eve of the showdown between the Royals and Erskine. A bonfire and pep-rally were held in honor of the Royals' big game. Although the women fell short in their 48-58 loss, they put up a great fight against the nationally ranked Erskine. Men's Royals came out on top against Erskine 71-60.

— Marci Turso

King and Queen, Travis Wallace and Tisha Edwards, are Absolute Royalty!

Piritta Luoto, Kelli Shurbish, and Alex Thomas look in a hurry to finish their meeting and return to their regular Senior activities.

PROs help the new Freshmen feel at home during Orientation weekend in August. Sophomore Esther Kim enjoys having ice cream with her charges at Dr. Wireman's home on Selwyn Ave.

Sophomore David Harrell seems to be having a BAD HAIR DAY.

INDIVIDUALS

Students come to Queens College from 25 states and 9 countries!

"No bird soars too high, if he soars with his own wings."

— William Blake

of...95

"There I am in younger days,
Star gazing, painting picture-perfect maps
Of how my life and love would be.

Not counting the unmarked paths of misdirection, despite a compass, failing in its perfection —

I missed ten million miles of road I should have seen.

Meanwhile, our friends we thought were so together, Left each other one by one on the road to fairer weather.

And we sit here in our storm and drink a toast to the slim chance of love's recovery . . .

Tell all our friends who think they're so together,

That these are ghosts and mirages, all these thoughts of fairer weather.

Though it's lonely now, I feel safe within the arms of love's discovery."

— Indigo Girls

Julie E. Akers

Amy C. Boger

Holly J. Boggs

Amy J. Bonamarte

Jennifer L. Burgin

Emily R. Burningham

Estrica Clayton

Tyra T. Cooper

Tisha A. Edwards

Jennifer A. Ellis

Lara A. Eppert

Stacey M. Evans

Angela M. Forero

Joseph B. Fryar III

Shephali Gupte

Heather K. Hall

Keri K. Harper

Katherine C. Hickey

Kenneth B. Higgins

Christa D. Jones

Belinda L. Johnson

Yvette Johnson

Margaret W. Keiley

Ashley P. Keith

Wendy A. Kolvek

Irene K. Kombo

Sonya R. Kuhn

Maureen P. Lopez-Ibanez

Piritta K. Luoto

Amber D. Mabe

Lisa M. Michelbach

Athena M. Mobley

Amy N. O'Hara

Jennifer L. Overcash

Alison M. Permakoff

Kelli L. Shurbish

Jennifer Smith

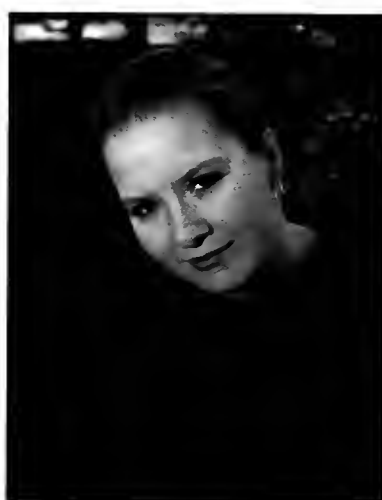

Sherron L. Stallworth

Jennifer Sweeney

Tara A. Thomas

Susan M. Thompson

Jason K. Trigiani

Travis E. Wallace

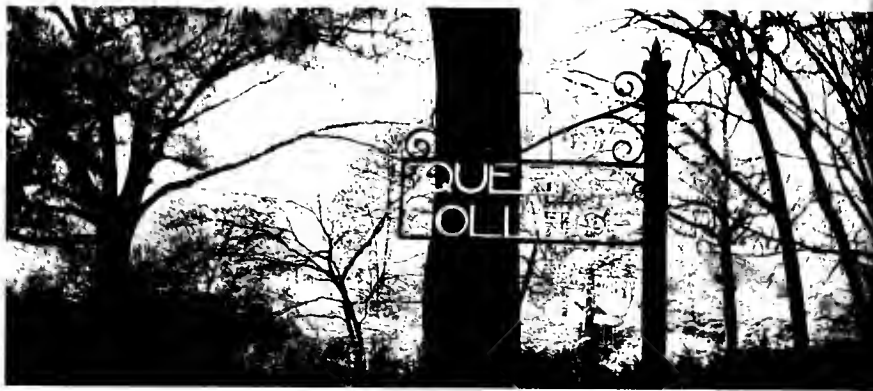

John R. Wilson

Rebecca Wilson

Senior Class President Lisa Michelbach addresses her fellow graduates at Commencement on May 6.

The Seniors have worked long and hard to have the distinction of being honored at convocations.

Lisa Michelbach and Gwen Brand are just beaming at the camera, happy to be college graduates.

COMMENCEMENT 1995

May 6, 1995

Seniors say farewell to Queens and leave in search of new horizons.

The QB's Graduate!

Commencement exercises for the class of 1995 were held in Burwell Circle at 10 o'clock on the morning of May 6th. Senior Class President Lisa Michelbach made an address to her fellow graduates and Jennifer Huff was named Valedictorian.

Class of 1996

Above — Ercel Carter and Mara Apple have become great friends in their first three years at Queens. They love spending time together in Trexler courtyard!

Right — Robin Walker, Amy Stout, and Maurice Sadler enjoy a picnic on the steps of Trexler while the weather is still beautiful.

Below — Julie Janorschke helps during Pre-Registration in the basement of Walker Science Building. Julie does Workstudy in the Registrar's Office!!

April Amos

Shawn Cavender

Kristin Coke

Allyson Cline

Juniors

Samantha Benjamin

Michael Best

Keeron Emmanuel

Dana Fields

April Harmon

Kathy Harwell

Martha Heisler

Carrie Hunt

Jill Jones

Sharon McDaniel

Andrew Parsons

Amanda Pemberton

Juniors

Class of 1996

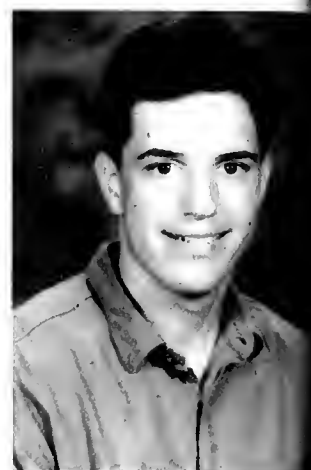

Katie Porter

Michael Register

Amy Stout

Andrew Switzer

Robin Walker

Myrna Sulsona poses with Queens College's Royals Mascot, Rex in Ovens Gym.

Liesl White

Athena Williams

Hope Yancey

Left — Jill, Keeron, Amanda Robin, and Lydia enjoy Charlotte's cultural events, such as the Greek Fest. Below — Cyndi Garnto checks out the Internship Fair.

Above — Tony Heffner is new to Queens this year. He transferred from WVU-Parkersburg and went to High School with many other Queens students.

Andy Parsons and Tony Hefner sample some of that delicious Morrison food. Andy and Tony went to high school together in Parkersburg, West Virginia.

Kathy Harwell is a Resident Assistant in Harris Hall and comes to Queens College from Chester, Virginia.

THE FABULOUS JUNIORS: Suzy Sulsona and Tiffany Parker hold the awe of Eddie Garcia and Chris Prestridge during the Chi Omega White Carnation ball.

Above — Tamika Ussery enjoys a fine glass of TEA at the traditional Boar's Head dinner. She is just amazed at how good it tastes!

Suzy Sulsona and Keeron Emmanuel were chosen to represent the Junior class during Homecoming 1995. They were fabulous.

DANCING FOOL: Liesl White attends the Welcome Back dance sponsored by College Union to show everyone else just how it's done.

JUNIORS

The class of 1996 has made many contributions to the Queens community through service activities, campus involvement, and more.

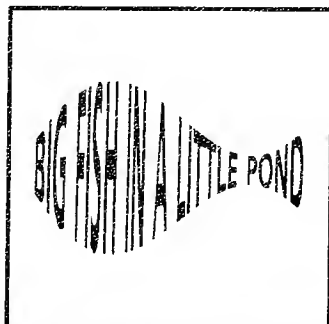

Above — Junior class officers Mike Register and Maurice Sadler unveil a mural in Ovens Gym — a gift to the school from the Junior Class.

Left — Shawn Cavender, also known as "Butthead" is a History major and is from Wilmington, North Carolina.

SOPHOMORES

Class of '97 is in the house!

The Sophomores have grown up quite a bit in the past year and have become a large part of campus life.

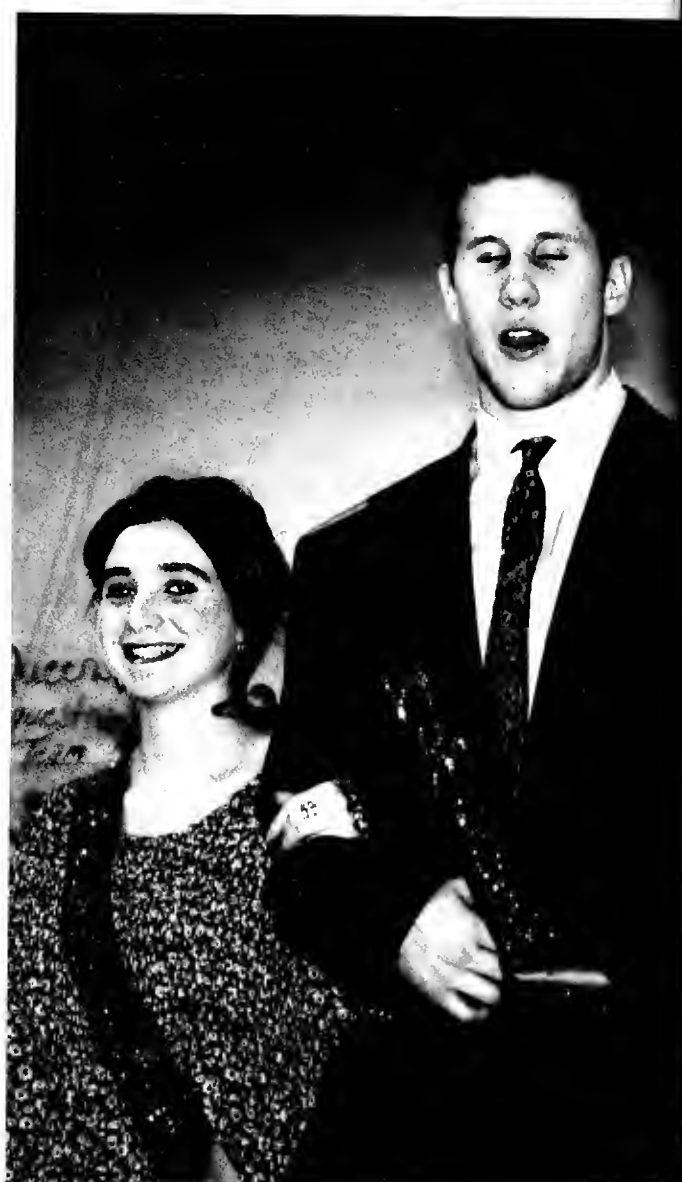

Top right: Jennifer Connolly, Darlene Tvarock, and April Siegel study for a Liberal Learning exam.

Bottom right: Sophomore Rosalie Miklos and Chuck Whiteman were both representative during Homecoming.

Above: Dixie Griffin and Kristina Dickinson toast to their second Boar's Head dinner to celebrate the Holiday season.

Superwoman Susan Stabley takes an active part on campus as newspaper editor and savior of the yearbook.

Andrew Brownfield

Lisa Butcher

Anne-Marie Caltagirone

Katherine Currin

Kristina Dickinson

Tishani Doshi

Amy Elliott

Henry Fields

Heather Forson

Dixie Griffin

David Harrell

Kristen Horde

CLASS OF 1997

Eowyn Johnson

Robert Jones

Russ Kagan

Esther Kim

Jennifer Leach

T.J. Lewis

Kindra Lile

Joanna Mantis

Shannon Martin

Marcy Meier

Catherine Moore

Patrick Morgan

CLASS OF 1997

Jacqueline Montgomery

Robin Morris

Heather O'Neal

Monica Pettiford

Jody Rimmer

Laura Rosser

Jennifer Rousseau

Talin Sarkissian

Jeremy Shore

Jennifer Shute

Lydia Smirnov

Terri Smith

CLASS OF 1997

Susan Stabley

Casie Sutherland

Katherine Talbot

Stephanie Toler

Tamara Turner

Darlene Tvarock

Kelly White

Danny Wicker

Cheri Zuzich

CLASS OF 1997

therine Travelute seems to joy being whisked around the nce floor by Jody Rimmer at sino party 1994.

Sophomore Ann Duval is active on campus as a Chi Omega, a member of the Queens College Chamber Choir and has been seen in drama roles in the Black Box Theater.

Cheri Zuzich is taking all of Sophomore year in stride including the Midnite on Ice sessions at Eastland Mall

SOPHS

In the Middle of it All!

Top Right: Andrew Brownfield serves as a Resident Assistant and really enjoys those Residence Life meetings.

Bottom Right: Terri Smith and Clayton Coley seem excited have been selected for the Homecoming court.

These women show their concern for the plight of the homeless at the annual OASIS sleepout.

Emily Hanson prepares to perform in the short-lived Queens College Pep Band, which played during home basketball games to get spectators and players excited.

PROUD TO BE AN ALPHA ELTA PI — Hannah Roberts shows that Greek spirit by flashing her letters in Trexler College center.

April Siegel enjoys spending time between Art projects as a member of Phi Mu Sorority and being with her friends

Is that Grayson's future calling him or is he just thinking about his next nap?

Below — Kim Ward helps out the spirit band during the home basketball games.

Above — Katey Baruth knows that Freshmen have to learn to balance playtime with study time. Katey is a member of the basketball team and has to study during breaks every chance she gets.

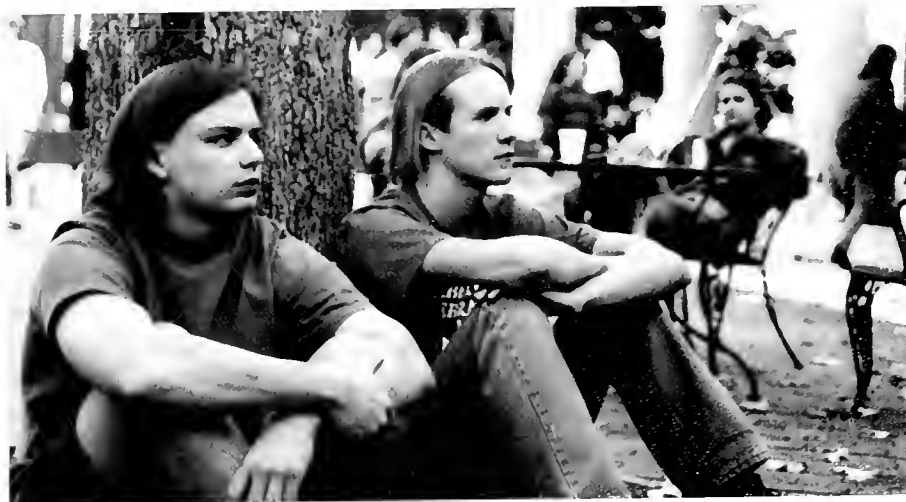

SATURDAY NIGHT FEVER — Freshman Class President, Brian Watson, shows others how to get down and boogie.

Chuck Wendig is a Communications major and is currently very active with Queen paper, "The Paw Print."

Left — Freshmen Soccer players, Theresa Sproch, Tara Guertin, and Rebecca Sorges listen intently to instructions from Coach Norchi on the best game strategy.

Below — Jason Winslow and Jake Ray enjoy watching the activity around Trexler College Center during a break in their busy schedules.

THE FRESHMEN

For many, the Freshman year is the most difficult. For others, it is a great time to experience new-found freedom.

FRESHMEN

Sarah Abrams
Brooke Albert
Amanda Alford
Sherri Armbrister

Michelle Banks
Katey Baruth
Carey Bausman
Dana Bell

Jennifer Besse
Erynn Bilang
Meredith Buscher
Keisha Butler

Cara Cahill
Ashley Capps
Amy Carroll
Oliver Chandhok

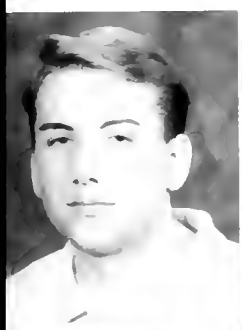

Jonathan Clark
David Costner
Amy Cutshall
Amy Davis

Freshman Registration

Most Freshmen are a little nervous about their first "College Registration." Lucky for them, Queens is a small school and they won't have to stand in line for hours. The Registrar's office is aware that most of these new students are a little confused about how the system works and even more importantly, nervous that all the classes will be filled — just before it is their turn!

John Davis
Susan Davis
Courtney Devores
Matt Dillworth

Supna Doshi
Aimee Duffield
Anna Edwards
Ivana Erceg

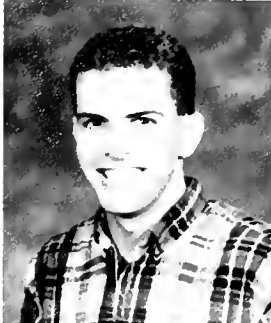

Benita Fields
Katherine Furler
Rachel Gittner
Tara Guertin

Freshmen

Richard Hackelton
Bo Hall
Teresa Hall
Angela Hart

Emily Hope
Jason Jacobs
Nichelle Jerido
Jennifer Jones

Michal Jones
Kelly LaPointe
Jennifer Leslie
Pamela Logsdon

Suzanne Maddox
Carey Malaluan
Sarah Mayton
Dan McBrayer

Kim McElrath
Misty McGuire
Ann Walton McQuage
Suzanne McReynolds

BONDING MOMENTS

Orientation is the time when the Freshman class gets to know each other. It is important for new students to feel a cohesiveness and camaraderie with those with whom they will spend the next four years. Playfair is a favorite memory of many of the upperclassmen and now probably for those Freshmen too.

Staci Mead
Michele Minter
Cinda Murphy
Kirsta Norwood

Kim Novotny
Graciano Nuñez
Melanie Parker
Martha Patrick

Diana Peta
Susan Porges
Allison Porter
Charmain Pugh

Freshmen

Amy Ratigan
Jill Redinger
Carolyn Riley
William Rissler

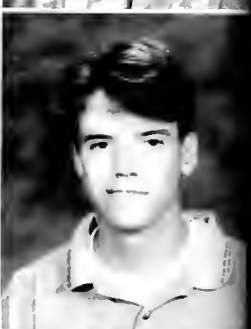

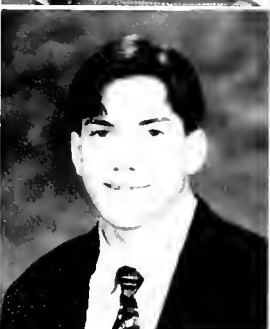

Tracy Roddy
Shayna Sands
Ashley Smith
Mary Soules

Rob Spidle
Theresa Sproch
Chante Sterling
Brandy Stern

Stephanie Suggs
Tony Terrana
Lauren Thomas
Brendan Tierney

Mary Tietz
Scott Trowbridge
Kadim Tshiek
Ann Waggoner

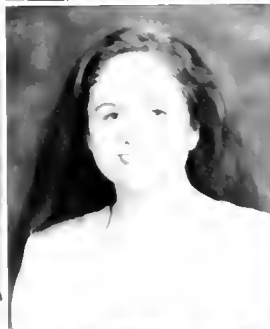

SPECIAL TIMES

Each class has its own storehouse of college memories that begins with Orientation and ends with Graduation and also continues in the form of life-long friendships. The Freshman class will remember choosing Ms. Lindsay Clark and Mr. Brian Watson as their first Homecoming Court Representatives in January.

Jessica Walker
Kimberly Ward
Chuck Wendig
Jerard White

Ruth Wills
Susan Wills
Chad Wingate
Jason Winslow

Stacy Worly
Julia Yusfiņa

Right — Erica Hall keeps herself busy with the Drama department and College Union. She is also a Presidential Scholar and a member of Phi Mu.

It seems Freshmen really are looking up to Sophomore Liz Childs. Liz is really showing them the improper attitude to have for Sorority Rush parties.

Above — Amy Ratigan and other Freshmen listen intently to advising during Orientation. What a way to spend Saturday afternoon!!

Sometimes, they even let Freshmen have the ball! Suzanne McReynolds prepares to serve the ball during Volleyball practice.

WHEN WE WERE YOUNG

The heart of a skeptic and the mind of a child. Put my life in a box and let my imagination run wild . . . pour the cement on my feet. The heart and the mind on a parallel chord, and never the two shall meet." — Indigo Girls

This Freshman knows the importance of recycling.

These Freshmen ladies, along with Sophomore Dixie Griffin, are ecstatic to be Phi Mu pledges.

Rachel Gittner and Amy Quiring are members of the Queens College Chorale and are pictured learning a new song.

Rex gives Myrna Sulsona a hug during Orientation 1994.

Above: Tim McPherson demonstrates his transportation of choice on his IEP trip to Alpine Europe during Summer '94.

Paw Print Editor Susan Stabley grabs a quick bite to eat before running off to her office — gotta make those deadlines!!

Student Life

Queens students' lives are filled with fun and a sense of community.

OASIS organization shows concern for the homeless during their annual sleepout.

"Think in the morning.
Act in the noon.
Eat in the evening.
Sleep in the night."

— William Blake

Below — Queens College alumni Rob Holt and Will Lee exchange money and beer during a hot round of poker. These two men are a reminder that the fun at Queens doesn't have to stop after graduation.

Below — Grayson Steele contemplates his next move, while Robin and Nikkeia Kerr (lower left) show us the appropriate dress for Casino Party.

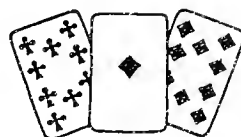

Right — Junior Dana Fields and her date, Jamie show just how excited they are about their winnings.

CASINO PARTY 1994

There's a rumor going around that Trexler was turned into a 1920s Speakeasy for those shady students to gamble the night away. They had a great time and won lots of prizes. But, sshh, you didn't hear it here!

Below — Hannah Roberts shows her Alpha Delta Pi pride during Rush 1994. Hannah is a sophomore and has been a Greek for almost a year.

Above — The Ice Cream Social was the perfect opportunity for those interested in Rushing to meet the Greek women on campus.

Above — Kristin Coke and Whitney Warnke practice their skit for one of Chi Omega's Rush parties. They are looking forward to performing this many times.

These ladies of Phi Mu, Katie Flynn, V. Nguyen, Julie Janorschke, and Ann Du of Chi Omega are ecstatic about the upcoming Rush parties.

Juniors Hayxa Garrido, Amanda Pemberton, Amy Stout, and Suzy Sulsona served their sororities by keeping their greek affiliations a secret in order to serve as nonbiased counselors for Rushes.

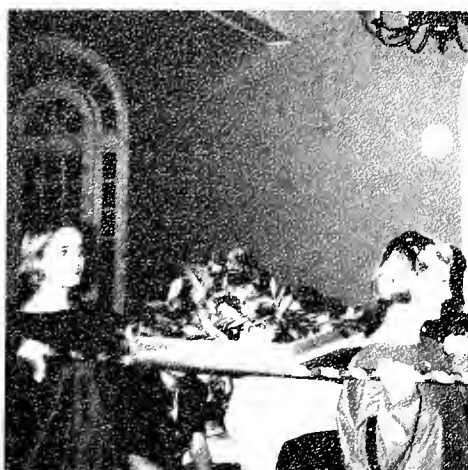

Below — The Greek fashion show was a big hit. Katie shows what is not a good idea to wear to "Pref Party".

RUSH 1994 is HUGE SUCCESS

Rush is one of the biggest events on the Queens College campus each year. This is the time when Greeks welcome new members.

Seniors Nikki Blaha & Lisa Michaelbach carry in the boars head. This is one of the many Queens College traditions.

Dr. Tim Burson helps Dr. Al Maynard carry the yule log to the dorm quad to begin the traditional fire.

Sophomores Kristina Dickinson and Heather Forson toast each other's happiness at the Boar's Head Feast.

B

OAR'S HEAD FEAST 1994

Once again Queens College held the annual Boar's Head Feast. A weekend of holiday celebration began with the feast which featured Queens College Chamber Singers and Queens College dancers. The Boar's Head Feast, a time honored tradition, brings together the entire community — students, staff, faculty, and alumni — to reflect the holiday season, and the passing and coming of the year.

The Queens College Chamber Singers under the direction of Dr. James Glenn. Many long hours of practice and dedication go into the final Boar's Head performance.

Students gather around the burning Yule Log to throw their cares of the past year away.

A classical brass band was on hand through the Boar's Head Feast to provide the musical atmosphere.

April Amos, Keeron Emmanuel, and Amanda Pemberton try on their skates and get ready to fall!!

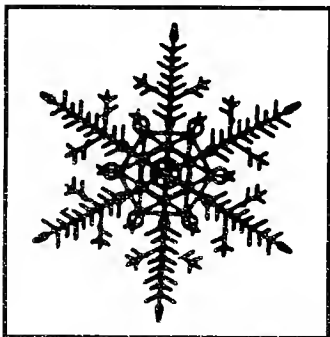

Right: This group really knows how to have some fun at Midnite on Ice!

Ken Higgins and Martha Heisler are excited to be a part of such a memorable event.

ON ICE

Midnite On Ice Celebration

Once again, College Union reserved the ice rink at Eastland Mall so students could take a study break before exams. It seemed everyone was there and having a great time!!

Kim Novotny (r) shows fellow Freshman Carrie Anne Steele where to go to get the perfect pair of skates.

bove — Kristin Coke shows r friend how to perform the ditional pre-Midnite on Ice nce.

Matt Dilworth enjoys some refreshments between rounds of skating.

Left — Tisha Edwards shows them how it's done . . . with a smile, of course.

Below: Jackie Montgomery and April Siegel sit together in remembrance of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Above: Thomas Edwards walks by the sign that shows all the students' and staffs' signatures of support.

Right: Eric Baldwin, Director of Residence Life, shows his support with students Mikal Ison and Carlos Pitts.

S
“

ometimes

saying nothing at all, says it all!

Left: Nikkeia Kerr and Keeron Emmanuel follow Dr. King's example of protest and peace.

Below: America observed Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s Holiday and so did Queen's College . . . Students held a silent protest.

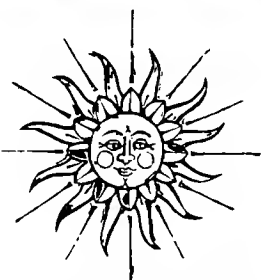

Right: Scott Holmes signs the poster to show his support.

Above: Dr. Bob Porter felt the peaceful protest was "in the spirit of Dr. King" his reluctance to display any kind of violence or animosity."

Spring at Queens Means:

Getting to enjoy being outside without freezing and spending lots of time before exams start hanging out with friends and enjoying picnics on the lawn. Meg Jones, Kristin Coke, Kendra Shepherd, Stacy Joyner, Kimberly Ward, and Ann Duval really got into the picnic held in the residence hall on April 6, 1995.

SPRING COMES TO QUEENS COLLEGE

Ali Permakott thinks she may have found the perfect date to Spring Carnival — 90210's Ian Ziering.

After many long months of hard studying, wearing sweaters, and complaining about the heating system, Queens students celebrate yet another return of Spring to our campus.

Campus was in bloom most visibly in front of Burwell Hall. Queens gets many compliments on her beautiful campus.

Myrna Sulsona's favorite Spring activity seems to be sleeping in!

PRINCE POGUE

Ryan Pogue is named Queens Royal Prince

Senior Ryan Pogue was chosen among five other men in the annual contest sponsored by Students for Black Awareness.

Meet the Judges: Winnie Bryce, Dr. Emily Seelbinder, and Dr. Eric Lien.

Below — The Contestants were chosen by various organizations around campus. Judges based scores in several categories and the winner was chosen.

Above — Mike Register sings song for the talent part of the competition.

Each contestant in the Royal Prince contest was required to perform for the judges during the talent competition.

Graciano Nunez acted out a scene for the judges. He has been very involved in the Drama productions on campus this year.

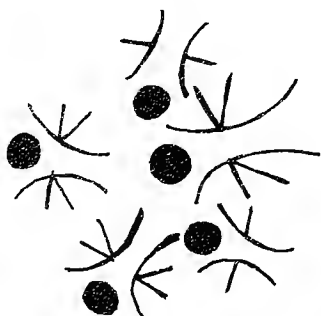

Above — The contestants were lucky enough to get a dance with these beautiful ladies.

AND THE WINNER IS: Last year's Royal Prince, Robin Walker, announces the new winner as Tishani Doshi looks on.

Robin crowns Ryan Pogue as the 1995 Royal Prince

On the weekend of October 21-23, the Queens community joined together to support the North Carolina Special Olympics. Students volunteered for a number of jobs, such as registration and scorekeeping. The games took place at the Renaissance Park facilities in Charlotte, and the weekend ended with a dance.

Katherine Townsend, Queens' resident counselor, leads the athletes into the opening night ceremonies.

Queens students give a cheer for all the participants of the Special Olympics.

Kelly White, a sophomore at Queens, helps her friends from Robeson County proudly display their banner.

Queens students await the beginning of opening night ceremonies.

Lending a helping hand, juniors, Mara Apple and Andi Taylor prepare to lead Rutherford.

The Queens Community Gets Active

Last Fall, students, faculty, and other members of the college community walked alongside the residents of Myer's Park in a candlelight vigil in honor and memory of those killed in domestic violence situations. Take Back The Night is an annual event in Charlotte and many among showed support for the cause.

Sidelines

QUEENS COLLEGE TAKES BACK THE NIGHT

Sophomore Nikkeia Kerr speaks to others about domestic violence and how we all can help change this national trend.

Domestic violence is one of the leading causes of death among women in the United States, and is apparently on the rise.

Robin Morris and Christa Jones display the banner carried by Queens Students in the Take Back The Night vigil.

Cathy Curtis and Eric Baldwin were among the Queens staff supporting this wonderful cause.

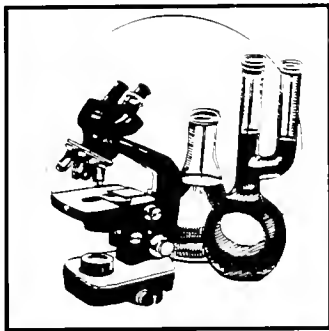

Aimee Duffield and Uriah Braden are deep in thought, pondering the mysteries of the computer.

Mike Murphy appears interested in one of his classes. What are you thinking, Mike?

Dr. Goode and Dr. Lien spend a beautiful day consulting for their share of classes. A Dr.'s work is never done!

Academics

Preparation for the Real World Beyond Our Walls

Below: Julie, Margaret, Terri, and Dawn finally say goodbye to Queens College as they prepare for a December graduation!!

"Many are our joys in youth, but oh! what happiness to live
When every hour brings palpable access
Of Knowledge, when all knowledge is delight,
And sorrow is not there!"

— William Wordsworth

1914 — Queens College moves to Myers Park

1896 — Affiliation to Presbyterian Synod becomes Presbyterian Female College

1771 — Colonists petition George III for a charter to est. a Queen's College

1924 — Starting teacher's salary, $1,200 a year

1903 — Edelweiss, the first annual issued

1857 — Charlotte Female Institute, forerunner of Queens College est.

1926 — First Founder's Day celebrated

1930 — Merger with Chicora College, Queens-Chicora College

1928 — Chi Omega, first sorority to initiate their pledges

1933 — First Boar's Head dinner served

A History of Queens

From the time when Queens College first opened its doors in 1857 as the Charlotte Female Institute, we, the student body, teachers, and administration have been challenged to do our best as individuals and as an institution. Our ability to adapt has served us well throughout our shared history. We have been strengthened both in nature and in character and enter into our future secure because of our past.

— Joan Showers

A 1922 photograph of southern belles posing in front of Burwell Parlor after Queens moved to Myers Park.

Queens students unloading on moving-in day, 1954.

1940 — Diana statue placed in southern quadrangle.

1950 — Belk Chapel dedicated on June 4 at four o'clock

1965 — First black student enrolled, Mrs. Shirley Heppburn Baptiste.

1946 — Non-resident male students arrive on campus. By 1948, there were 28

1960 — Everett Library dedicated with its "Fields of Knowledge" mosaic

1978 — Dr. Billy O. Wireman, 15th president, arrives

1980 — Queens' first post-baccalaureate degree program, MBA, installed

1993 — McCall School of Business founded

1969 — 450 students participate in chapel "sit-in"

1989 — Liberal Learning and IEP programs instituted.

1993 — Trevelyan College Center, 1st new building in 27 years

A 1927 aerial photograph of Queens College, thirteen years after the school's move to Myer's Park.

A profile of Diana, a symbol that will forever evoke memories of Queens College. Diana was given to Queens in 1940

Dr. McGavran shows how much fun the faculty have at Thursday morning coffee in Burwell parlor, as Drs. Foster and Rhodes converse behind her.

Dr. Richard Goode continues to be a favorite among students and his reputation has earned him N.C.'s Professor of the Year Award.

Dr. and Mrs. Wireman greet new Freshmen at Orientation 1991.

Richard Crown is often spotted in the Ceramics lab with his beloved art students or in the cafeteria, eating baked chicken.

Woman of the Year

Corrie ter Mors receives Business Woman of the Year scholarship.

Junior Corrie ter Mors is no stranger to success. Along with her 3.9 GPA, her resume will boast that she is Wallace dorm Senator, Treasurer of College Union, and captain of the Soccer team. She spent her summer in Belgium as an intern with the "Wall Street Journal Europe".

Below — Queens alumnus, Chris Blunt, utilizes the services that the Career Center offers to all alumnae and students in job search assistance.

SIGI KNOWS!

SIGI KNOWS
YOU!

Above — The newest attraction in the Career Center is SIGI. SIGI is a computer program that helps students pinpoint talents and interests to help make job hunting easier.

Above — The Career Center staff is all smiles about the 2nd annual Internship Fair which was held on October 26 in Trexler Center. L-R: Libby Ogburn, Len Brinkley, Lucy Jones, and Amanda Pemberton.

Left — The Senior Dinner sponsored by the Career Center was a huge success. An alumni panel talked about job searching and answered questions from concerned Seniors.

Below — The Junior class began a new tradition to honor the seniors . . . they helped serve them dinner at the First Annual Senior Dinner.

Left — Senior Communications major, Amber Mabe tells students about her internship at WBTV in Charlotte. Many students get work experience through internships set up through the Career Center.

Above — Senior Tyra Cooper and Junior Athena Williams consult with Career Center Director, Len Brinkley at the annual Metrolina Job Fair held at the University Place Hilton.

Get To Work

Career Center Gets Busy!!

The Queens College Career Center has been through a lot of changes in the last year. First, the Career Center is now located in the library circle making it easier for students to access. Second, the Career Center welcomed with opened arms three new staff members: Lucy Jones, the new career counselor, Libby Ogburn, marketing director, and Monica Russell, secretary. Finally, the Career Center gained a new computer program called SIGI for students to use as a valuable resource.

Under the direction of Len Brinkley, the Career Center aids students in a variety of ways. Because Queens knows how diverse each student can be, the Career Center offers programs for everyone. For example, each year the annual Metrolina Job Fair and Internship Fair are held. The Career Center also offers workshops and seminars on topics such as interviewing, networking, and dressing for the job. Many different companies both in and outside of Charlotte recruit employees through the Career Center. The Career Center also assists in choosing majors, graduate school, interest tests, and part-time jobs. With the Career Center on your side, you can't lose.

— Kristen Koester

COLLEGE MARSHALS

Dr. Virginia Martin, Faculty Marshal
Dr. Charles O. Hadley, Associate Faculty Marshal
Jennifer Anne Huff, '95, Chief Marshal

Jennifer Ellen DelCheccolo, '97
Dixie Dawn Griffin, '97
Galadriel Lorien Johnson, '95

Christa Dawn Jones, '95
Piritta Kirsu Luoto, '95
Sharon Ellyn McDaniel, '96

Elizabeth Hope Yancy, '96

DEAN'S LIST

Class of 1995

Nicola Leslie Blaha
Amy Celeste Boger
Camille Joan Dewing Tracy McVay Drury
Tisha Ann Edwards
Maria Gerardene Frame
Melanie Kim Getchel
Betsy Lee Glenn
Tammy Michelle Green
Shephali Chaitanya Gupte
Joyce Ann Houle
Jennifer Anne Huff
Galadriel Lorien Johnson
Christa Dawn Jones
Margaret Walsh Keiley
Laurie Ann Langevin
Kelly Ann Loeblein
Piritta Kirsu Luoto
Lisa Marie Michelbach
Katharine Mullen
Robin Ann O'Donovan
Angie Marie Page
Calista Irene Phillips
Kathryn Meredith Stanley
Tara Alexander Thomas
Andrew Robert Touhy
Travis Eugene Wallace
Virginia Stroupe Wheeler
Rebecca Lynn Wilson
Theresa Ann Wise

Class of 1996

Mara Elizabeth Apple
Svetlana V. Astasheva
Allyson Kaye Cline
Kevin J. Considine
Jill Lyn Curtis
Jawanza Jamilah Dunbar Hayza Garrido
Ann Hilary Hanly
Katherine Julia Harwell
Sylvia Marsha Hensley
Carrie Rose Hunt
Julie Marie Janorschke
Jill Parker Jones
Sarah Jane Major Julie Ann Martin
Stefanie McCleary
Sharon Ellyn McDaniel
Amy Johnston Orr
Katherine Elizabeth Porter
Shannon Denise Privette
Janet Bridges Scott
Raphel Seth

William David Specht
Amy Beth Stout
Myrna deLourdes Sulsona
Suzette deLourdes Sulsona
Corinne Marie Tanzer
Corrie Lynn ter Mors
Janna Rhea VanWinkle
Kathryn Cameron Walton
Jeanne Allison Whitten
Edith Lillian Woodcock
Elizabeth Hope Yancey

Class of 1997

Dan Charles Breece
Lisa Marie Butcher
Clayton Wilson Coley
Jennifer Ellen Del Checcolo
Kristina Ann Dickinson
Tishani Doshi
Amy Lechelle Elliott
Henry Cyril Fields
Heather Leah Forson
Lara Ellen Goldsmith
Dixie Dawn Griffin
Martha Laura Harper
Robert Edward Jones
Nancy Lynn Klish
Eugene Burton Lutz
Joanna Mantis
Rebecca Ann Mayes
Marcy Lynn Meier
Rosalie Miklos
Catherine Elizabeth Moore
Robin Marie Morris
Laura Kate Rosser
Jennifer Elaine Shute
Cheri Jo Zuzich

Class of 1998

Allison Brooke Albert
Amanda Nicole Alford
Katey Elizabeth Baruth
Jennifer Lynn Besse
Carrie Lee Brown
Meredith Kay Buscher
Keisha Delores Butler
Melinda Ashley Capps
Sheyna Noel Carroccio
Susan Abernethy Davis
Jamie Michelle Dean
Courtney Elizabeth Devores
Ivana Erceg
Benita Sue Fields
Katherine Lee Furler
Erica Michelle Hall
Jason Bradley Jacobs
Michal Hope Jones

Kelly M. LaPointe
Mirka Inari Luoto
Suzanne Patricia Maddox
Carey Laine Malaluan
Michele Renee Minter
Kirsta Lynn-Alicen Norwood
Martha Teresa Patrick
Amy Jo Quiring
Michelle Leanne Ring
Erroll Jay Rohrbacher
Irene Umugwane Rwakazina
Marla Saterica Sanders
Ashley Rose Smith
Charissa Kay Smith
Wayne Lawrence Smith
Mary Elizabeth Soules
Carrie Ann Steele
Bethany Rachel Strepka
Anthony Victor Terrana
Lauren Phelps Thomas
Scott Allan Trowbridge
Ellen Jo Vance
Robert Stewart Varner
Ann Francis Waggoner
Jessica Dawn Walker
Kimberly Rae Ward
Ruth Karema Wills
Susan Meredith Wills

NEW DIMENSIONS FELLOWS

Melanie Anne Forgache
Maria Gerardene Frame
Phyllis Davidson Melton
Cathy Patterson Mingle
Deborah Kay Patton
Sue Williams Richards

MECKLENBURG SCHOLARS

Class of 1995

Diana Fitzgerald Archer
Amy Celeste Boger

Class of 1996

Allyson Kaye Cline
Maurice DeAngelo Sadler

Class of 1997

Eugene Burton Lutz
Catherine Elizabeth Moore
Catherine Diane Travelute

Class of 1998

Melinda Ashley Capps
Jamie Michelle Dean
Kendra Nicole Sheperd

MINORITY SCHOLARS

Class of 1995

Cherith Darice Foster
Donay Vashon Fullwood
Melanie Kim Getchel

Class of 1996

Jawnza Jamilah Dunbar
Keeron Inshan Emmanuel
Hayxa Garrido
Tamika De'Sha Ussery

Class of 1997

Kari Laura Gillespie
Gabrielle Antoinette Hawkins
Mikal Gerri Ison
Van Thi Ho Nguyen
Billie Jo Reynolds
Susan Jennifer Stabley
Tamara Nichole Turner

Class of 1998

Keisha Delores Butler
April Renee Green
Charmain Juanita Pugh
Ruth Karema Wills

QUEENS SCHOLARS

Class of 1995

Nicola Leslie Blaha
Amy Jane Bonamarte
Jennifer Ellen Christie
Neil Kenton Craig
Tracy Lynette Fortune
Jennifer Anne Huff
Margaret Walsh Keiley
Sonya Renee Kuhn
Heather Nicole Laws
Piritta Kirsu Luoto
Jennifer Leigh Overcash
Jennifer Sweeney
Jason Kenneth Trigiani
John Roger Wilson

Class of 1996

Shawn Allan Cavender
Kristin Anika Coke
Kathryne Anne Flynn
Cynthia Elaine Garnto
Martha Laura Harper
Katherine Julia Harwell
Carrie Rose Hunt
Julie Marie Janorschke
Jill Parker Jones
Sharon Ellyn McDaniel
Katherine Elizabeth Porter
Shannon Denise Privette
John Paul Salewski
Amy Beth Stout
Andrew Terhaar Switzer
Corrie Lynn ter Mors
Janna Rhea VanWinkle
Jennifer Leigh Yattoni

Class of 1997

Lisa Marie Butcher
Katherine Elizabeth Childs
Katherine Gordon Currin
Kristina Ann Dickinson
Amy Lechelle Elliott
Heather Leah Forson

Lara Ellen Goldsmith
Gabrielle Antoinette Hawkins
Heather Lynn Hazlett
Scott Brian Hoopingarner
Kristen Alana Hord
Esther Washin Kim
Nancy Lynn Klish
Joanna Mantis
Robin Marie Morris
Heather Hutchinson O'Neal
Hannah Brooks Roberts
Laura Kate Rosser
Jennifer Carrie Sams
Richard Wayne Smith
Heather Dawn Sury
Darlene Marie Tvarock
Christine Kelly White
Cheri Jo Zuzich

Class of 1998

Amanda Nicole Alford
Jenniger Lynn Besse
Sabrina Ann Blanks
Christopher Uriah Branden
Carrie Lee Butler
Keisha Delores Butler
Cara Marlene Cahill
Oliver Harvey Chandhok
Susan Abernathy Davis
Matthew Clay Dilworth
Michael John Donovan
Amice Michelle Duffield
Ivana Erceg
Yasmine Ellesia Ewers
Benita Sue Fields
Rachel Maria Gittner
Teresa Dawn Hall
Karin Lynn Higginbotham
Jason Bradley Jacobs
Michal Hope Jones
Suzanne Patricia Maddox
Sarah Katherine Mayton
Holly Nicole Meyers
Holly Amanda Nelson
Kirsta Lyn-Alice Norwood
Kimberly Rene Novotny
Amy Jo Quiring
William Jerad Rissler
Irene Umagwane Rwakazina
Ashley Rose Smith
Charissa Kay Smith
Rebecca Anne Sorgius
Mary Elixabeth Soules
Carrie Anne Steele
Scott Allan Trowbridge
Kara Lynet Vander Linden
Robert Stewart Varner
Travis Eugene Wallace
Kimberly Rae Ward
Jarad Singleton White
Kevin Andrew Yearick

DANA SCHOLARS

Class of 1995

Nicole Leslie Blaha
Melanie Kim Getchel
Shephali Chaitanya Gupte
Jennifer Anne Huff
Margaret Walsh Keiley
Lorraine Roxanne Lackman
Piritta Kirsu Luoto
Lisa Marie Michelbach
Amy Beth Stout

Class of 1996

Kristin Anika Coke
Jawnza Jamilah Dunbar
Daniel Louis Elmaleh
Keeron Inshan Emmanuel
Hayxa Garrido
Katherine Julia Harwell
Carrie Rose Hunt
Jill Parker Jones
Katherine Elizabeth Porter
John Paul Salewski
Tamika De'Sha Ussery

Class of 1997

Lisa Marie Butcher
Kristina Ann Dickinson
Heather Leah Forson
Lara Goldsmith Davis
Scott Brian Hoopingarner
Esther Washin Kim
Marcy Lynn Meier
Rosalie Miklos
Jennifer Carrie Sams

PRESIDENTIAL SCHOLARS

Class of 1995

Tisha Ann Edwards
Tammy Michelle Green
Galadriel Lorien Johnson
Christa Dawn Jones
Wendy Ann Kolvek
Robin Ann O'Donovan
Kathryn Meredith Stanley
Rebecca Lynn Wilson

Class of 1996

Mara Elizabeth Apple
Janet Scott Bridges
Ann Hilary Hanly
Christian Scott Kohler
Edith Lillian Woodcock
Elizabeth Hope Yancey

Class of 1997

Dan Charles Breece
Jennifer Ellen DelCiccio
Dixie Dawn Griffin

Class of 1998

Robert Arnold Beachum
Sheyna Noel Carroccio
Katherine Lee Furler
Erica Michelle Hall
Lauren Phelps Thomas

Below — Faculty and Staff take a break from their hectic schedules to enjoy Tea in Burwell parlor every Thursday during College Hour.

Right — Dr. Hadley takes a break from his busy class schedule to perform a wedding ceremony for Neil and Allison Craig.

Political Science professor Loren Fauchier helps Freshman Meredith Willis make some major decisions during Orientation 1994.

Right — Dr. Robert Whalen, pictured at his desk, is an important member of the Liberal Learning team. He is always on hand to give an interesting lecture on any topic the students might be studying.

Faculty Faces

They're Not Just Teachers . . . They're Friends!!

Dr. Vic Terrana is a well-respected Professor of Mathematics and has two sons who attend Queens. He is smiling because he is happy that Karl is going to graduate this year.

Queens College has a reputation for its outstanding faculty members. And we're not taught by Graduate students, either! Our students gain experience with real professors from day one of our Freshman year . . . that makes us different than other schools . . . and better!

Above — Art Professor Extraordinaire! Rick Crown lectures on the many uses of ceramic clay during a Liberal Learning lecture in McEwen Building.

Left — Dr. Emily Seelbinder strikes a pose with her "Scream" doll in her hands and Halloween socks on her feet.

IT DOESN'T GET ANY BETTER!!

Dr. Richard Goode was named North Carolina Professor of the Year by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching from among 20 nominees statewide. Dr. Goode remains a favorite among Queens students who were excited to hear of his award during a lunchtime announcement in Morrison cafeteria. It was a very Goode Day!!

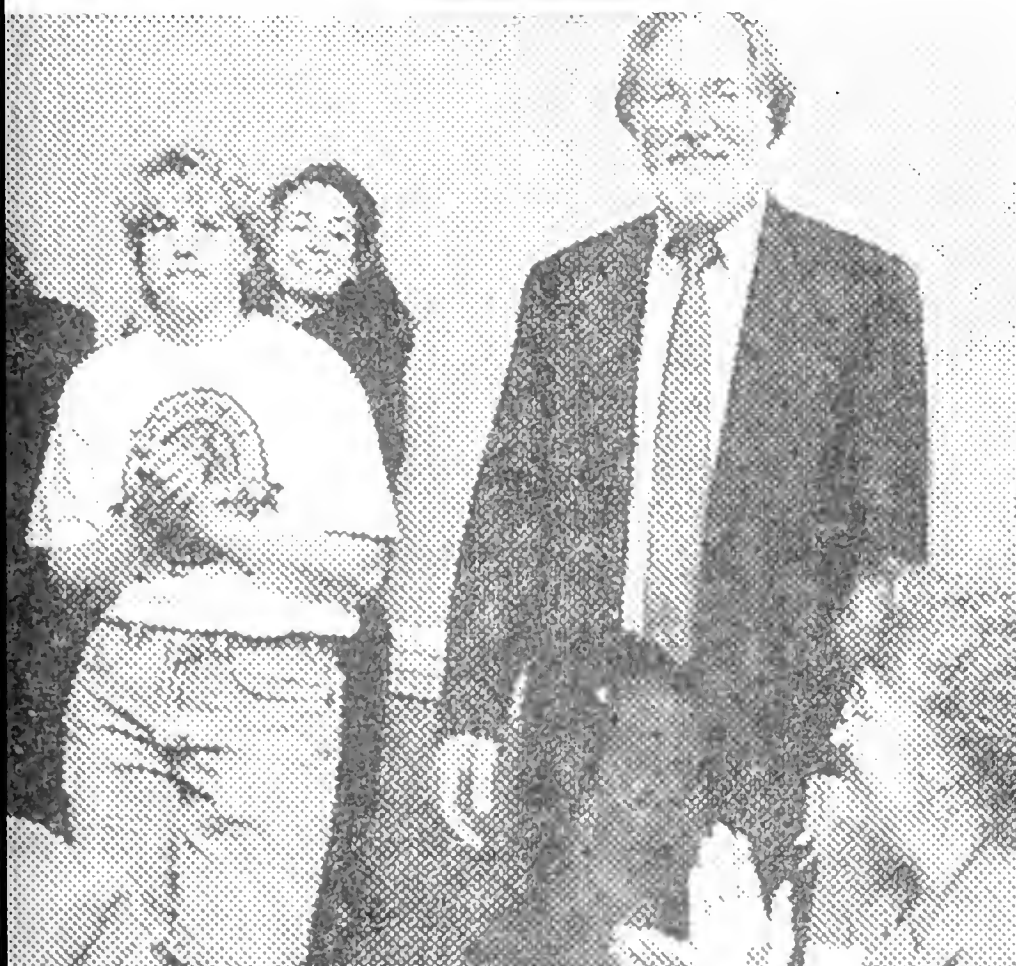

DR. RICHARD GOODE

1994 North Carolina Professor of the Year!!

Dr. Goode generates a level of enthusiasm in his classes that students appreciate. Here, he reads C.S. Lewis's The Discarded Image with his class.

Dr. Goode began teaching at Queens in 1978 and has been motivating students toward excellence ever since. He is a professor of English and heads the Humanities Division. We are very proud to have him as our own professor here at Queens.

Above — Dr. Goode takes an active part in educating Queens students. He serves as an advisor, helping many of us make important career choices.

Left — October 24, 1994 was officially declared "A Goode Day" when Dr. Billy O. Wireman announced Dr. Goode's award to a packed room in Morrison Dining Hall.

These Queens College Soccer players show their war wounds resulting from grueling hours of practice and games of tough competition.

Above — Senior Nicola Blaha is ranked among the top tennis players in her division, all while keeping an amazing record in her academic field of math.

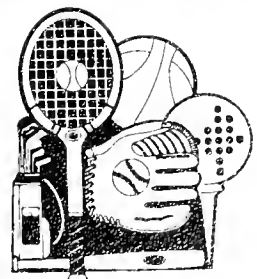

Leonard Shinhoster goes up for a slam during a practice session in Ovens Gym.

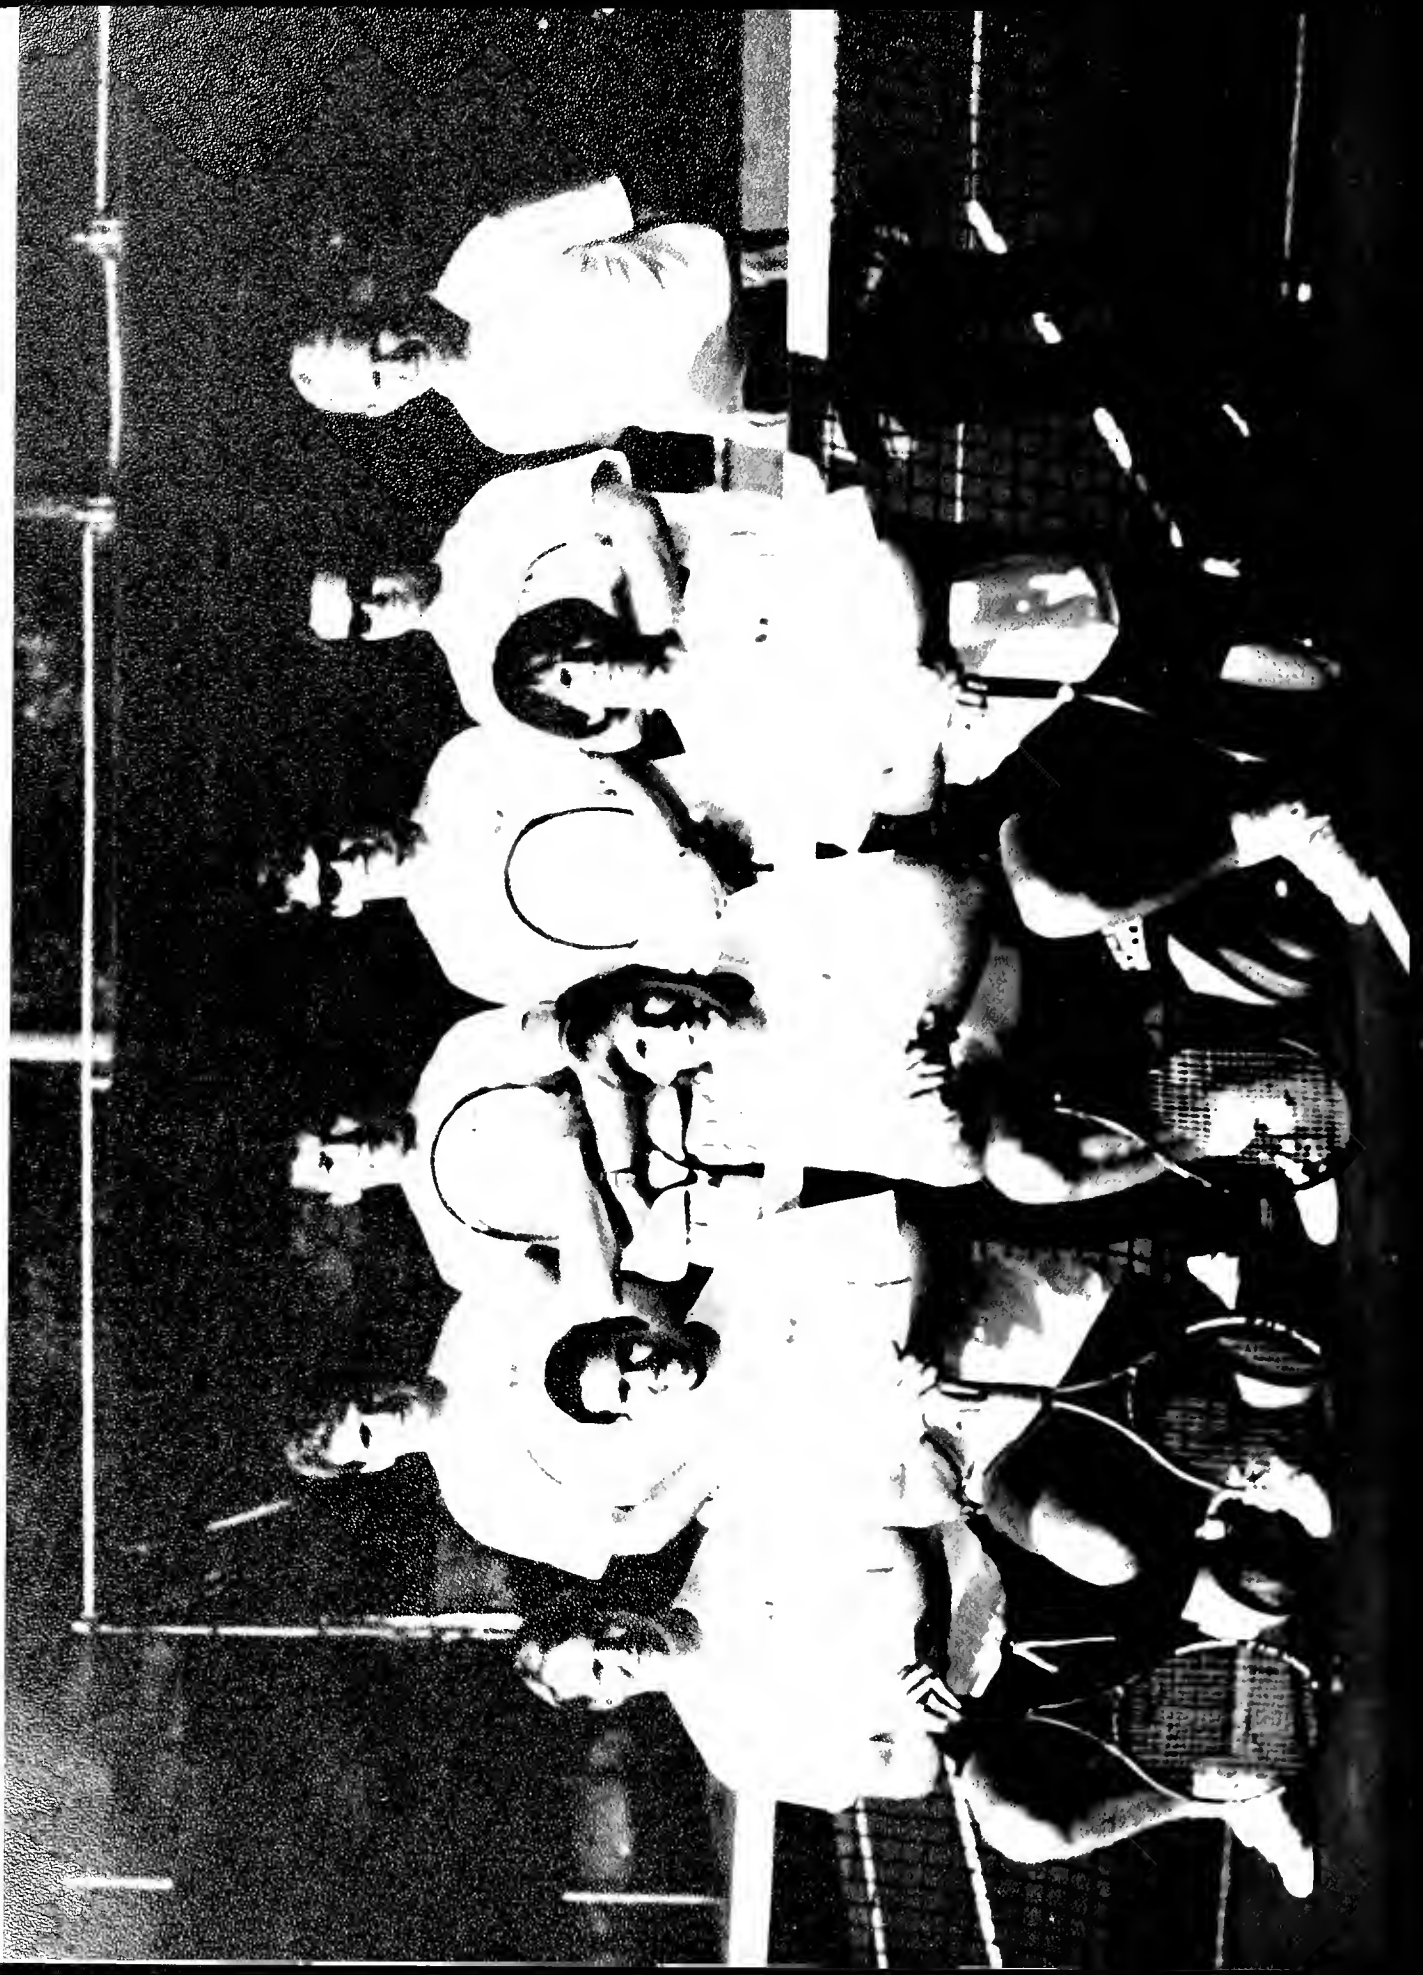

ATHLETICS

"You never know what is enough unless you know what is more than enough".

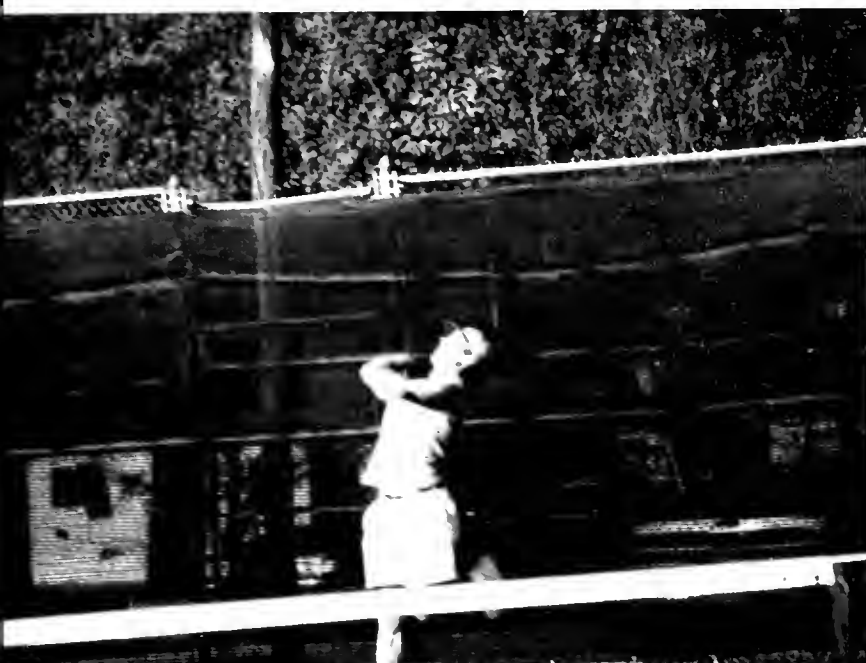

— William Blake

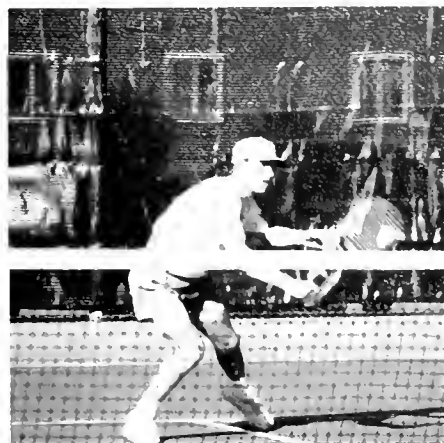

Team Deals With Touhy's Injury, but Toom and Coley keep Royals Hopping:

Men's Tennis

Queens' number one player, Angie Toom, prepares to hit an overhead smash at one of the team's home matches

Angie Toom shows his extraordinary form as he volleys a backhand winner!

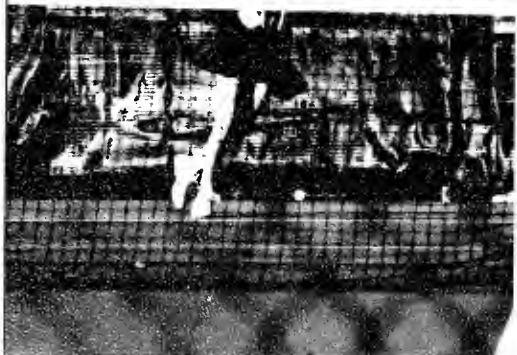

Sophomore Clayton Coley smacks a forehand return during a long grueling Royals practice.

Senior Andy Touhy leaps into a forehand return. Andy suffered an ankle injury and was forced to sit out during the spring season.

The team shows off the trophies they won at the fall tournament hosted by Gardner-Webb University.

Freshman Karin Higginbotham shows her powerful serve.

Sophomore Billie Jo Reynolds looks thrilled about practice. She's an excellent racket twirler!

Freshman Anna Edwards attacks her opponent's shot from the baseline.

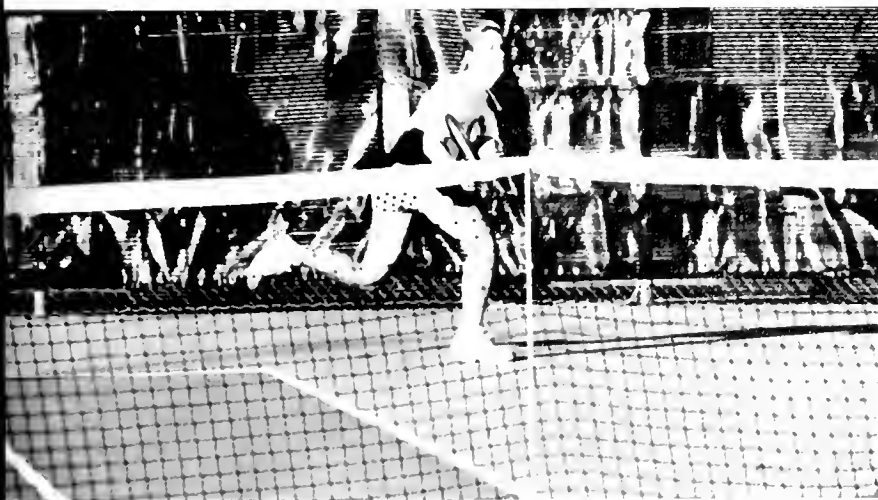

WOMEN'S TENNIS

"Opposition is true friendship."

— William Blake

The women's tennis team had another successful season under coach Phyllis Pharr. Freshman Anna Edwards became the first Queens player to hold a national ranking. Queens also came away with seven of the nine first place trophies at the Meredith Invitational held in Raleigh. The women have consistently shown their team as well as school spirit on and off the court by participating in last year's Habitat for Humanity and the North Carolina Special Olympics. These ladies are true royalty in whatever they do.

October, the women's tennis team happily volunteered to help out at the Special Olympics. Doesn't Coach Pharr look proud?

Senior captain Nikki Blaha is known for her ability to get to every shot as she does here.

1 12

22

35

15

59

14

35

21 30

24

25

32

41 42

oyals Enjoy Winning Season; Win Marriott
ournament As Fans Lend Unprecedented Support

Men's Basketball

Senior Team Captain Donay Fullwood makes a foul shot to the roar of the Homecoming crowd.

DeWayne Ansley and Chuck Whitman ready themselves for any opportunity to get their hands on the ball.

Josh Gorman practices his slam dunk during off-hours in Owens Gymnasium. His hours of practice have paid off. Gorman was the leading scorer in the 98-78 win over Livingstone with 13 points.

Point Guard, T.J. Lewis takes aim under constant pressure from his opposition

Lady Royals' Season Staggered Due to Injuries, Inexperience, and Tough Schedule . . .

Women's Basketball

Sophomores Nikki Turner and Kindra Lile guard against their opponent during one of their many home games. The Lady Royals got more support and game attendance this year from students than in the past.

Sophomore Wing, Lydia Smirnov looks to pass the ball to anyone open to take it to the net in a home game against Wofford.

Junior team co-captains Martha Heisler and Kristin Coke get the rest of the team excited for the Independent Teams Tournament. The Lady Royals began the tourney in 7th place and ended RUNNER UP!!

Coach Jeannie King talks to her team about the best way to go about "Kicking Some Butt" during a timeout. This is King's second year as the Lady Royals' Head Coach.

oyals finish with a 12-5 record and win the St. Leo Marriott Classic.

Men's Soccer

Left — Freshman John Durango takes on his opponent from Mars Hill College in a home game played in late October. Queens won the game 2-0.

Below — Senior team captain Pete Hovanec prepares to take a goal kick during one of Queens' many home wins this season.

Left — Freshman Mike Donovan skies over an opponent as fellow Freshman teammate, Gus Guerrero helps out.

Freshman and team scoring leader, Kevin Yearick heads toward the goal off a Queens College free kick. Yearick finished the season ranked tenth in the south region in scoring.

The Lady Royals let loose and unwind the night before a game in Florida.

Tara Guertin shows her relaxed pregame preparation that helped her make All-South.

Myrna and Suzy Sulsona agree that twins do share each other's pain.

The team not only enjoys a great meal on the road, but prove that every Queen has a King.

Royals Spike Their Way to Another Winning Season!

VOLLEYBALL

Left — The Royals put forth a wall of defense. Here the ladies begin a match by warming up with serves. Martha Laura Harper receives the ball from the opponent while her teammates wait their turn.

Below Senior Jen Christie skies to spike a ball during pregame warmups. Jen was both a defensive and offensive power for the Royals. She finished the season nationally ranked in blocks!!

Left — Freshman sensation, Suzanne McReynolds shows great form when she rises to the occasion for a spike. Suzanne was one of many freshmen who joined the team this year.

TEAMWORK! was a key ingredient to the Royal's success this year. Here the Royals are huddling up after a winning point against this night's victim.

QUEEN 11

11

QUEEN 1

1

QUEEN 2

2

QUEEN 5

5

QUEEN 21

21

QUEEN 18

18

QUEEN 17

17

QUEEN 19

19 talented Lady Royals Enjoy Winning Season . . .

GAIN!!!

SOFTBALL

The team watches as Heather Honeycutt strikes out her next victim!! Heather had a great year, ranking 22 nationally in strikeouts, averaging 7 per game.

Sophomore Gwen Gadberry plays with "Pepper." Is he the new mascot for the softball team? Ask Assistant Coach, Rob Holt, owner of the dog!!

"We have a talented team with a great future. Our season this year was very successful, placing in all three tournaments . . . one of the best-hitting teams in the Southeast."

— Coach Jeff Aumend

Freshman Santrissa Mathews is up to bat and ready to send Gina Davis home for the score.

OVENS ATHLETIC CENTER

10

Queens Tries a Hand on the Green with a "Fresh" Team

Golf

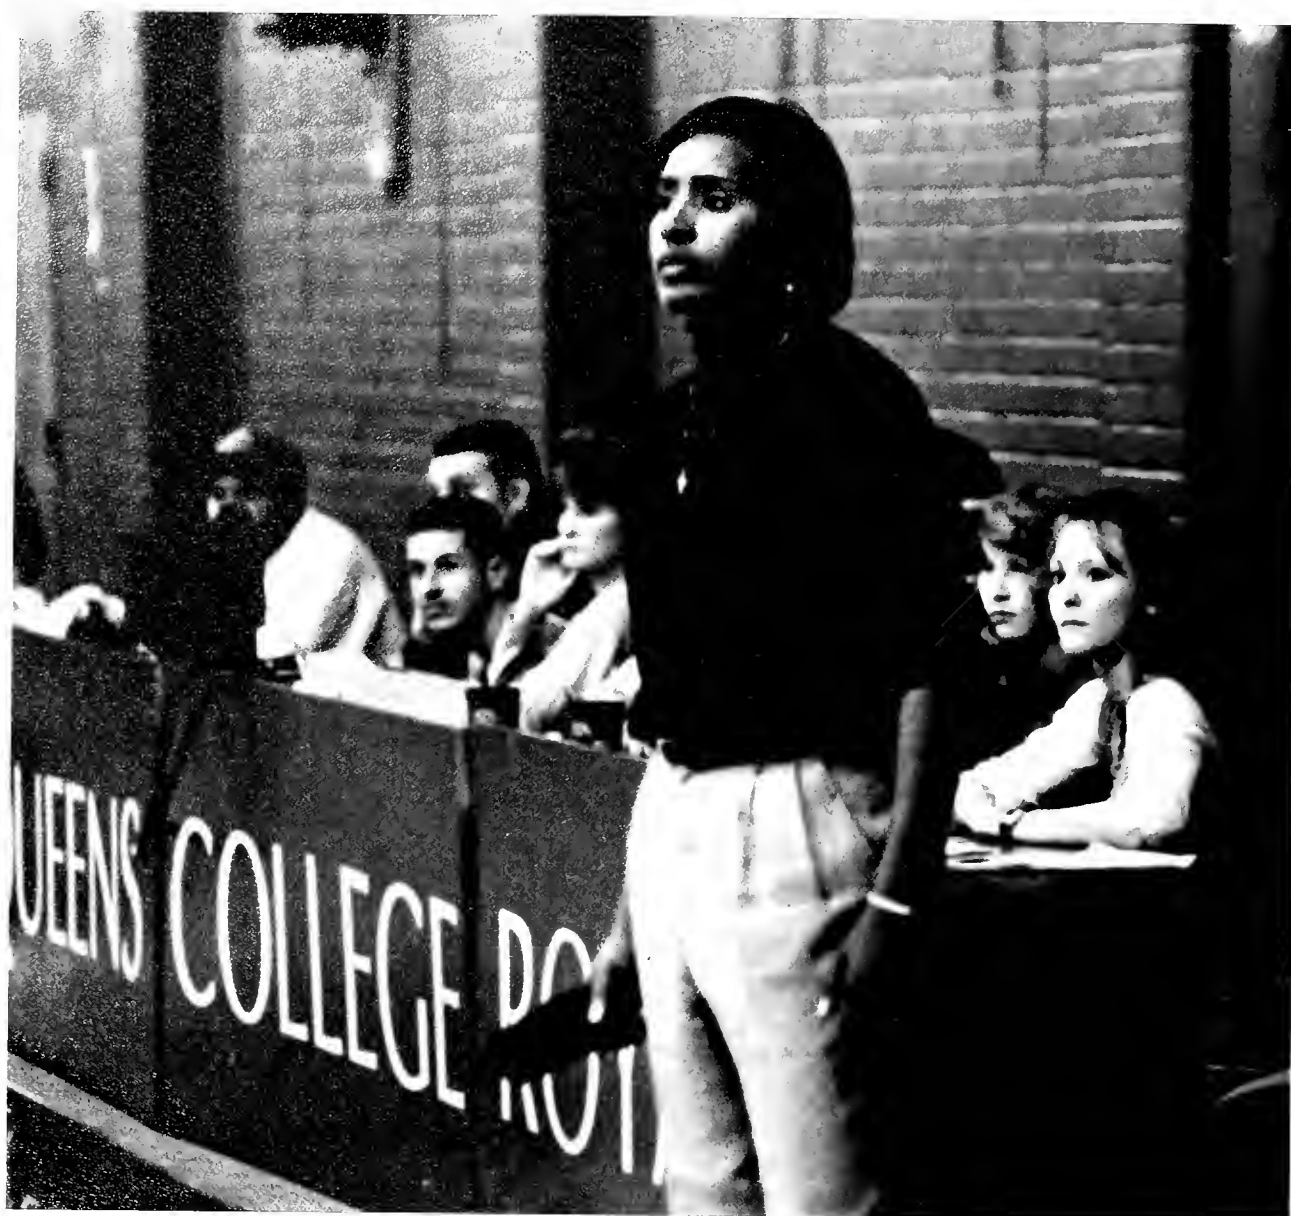

Freshman Brent Hackleton, from Key Largo, Florida, prepares to tee off at Charlotte's Renaissance Park.

Senior Bryan Fryar, from Knoxville, Tennessee, shows the form that has made him a four-year starter on the team.

Freshman Oliver Chandhod, of Toronto, Canada, follows through on a drive.

Freshman Brendan Tierney, from Jacksonville, Florida, prepares to line up a long-distance putt for a birdie.

Coach Jeannie T. King is a Dedicated Pro.

It is Coach King's second year at Queens and she has already made an inexperienced team into a good, workable force in Women's Basketball, ending her first season with the Lady Royals with a record of 17-10. She has a B.A. in Social Work from Texas Christian Univ. and a Master's Degree in Sports Management from Georgia Southern University.

Practice Makes For Better Play as Royals Give it
Their All in Various Sports!

Thrill of Victory

Sophomore point guard, Nikki Turner dives for the ball leaving her opponent on the floor behind her.

These soccer players congratulate each other on a point during one of their many home games.

Senior Joe Mazzo practices his kick, delivering the ball directly into the goal.

Volleyball players celebrate a job well-done.

QUEENS COLLEGE

Sailing Club members Tony Hefner, Jerard White, Andy Parsons and Andrew Brownfield pose with one of the clubs donor, Hugh McC...

SAILING CLUB

Andy Parsons and the Sailing Club's queen, NKOSI set off for a day of sailing on Lake Norman.

The Queens College Sailing Club was created in 1992, when Mr. Hugh McColl Jr. donated his boat and idea to the school. The club did not get immediate response from the students and faculty, however. Until March of 1994, little had been accomplished in the form of the sailing club. At this time, the leadership roles of the organization were given to Andrew Parsons '96 and Ercel Carter '96 under the supervision of faculty advisers: Dr. David Petts and Dr. Michael Eldridge.

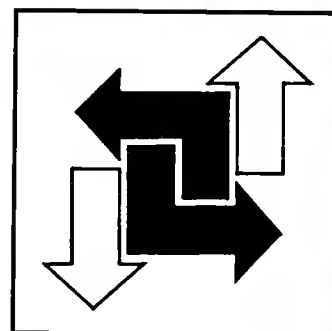

Tony Hefner and professor, Dr. Kent Rhodes, prepare for a beautiful day of relaxation on Lake Norman Organization is the Key.

The Student Government Association sponsored Homecoming 1994. Everyone agreed it was a huge success, including President Billy O. Wireman, who took part in the Pep Rally on this Tricycle while being chased by Rex.

Most of our activities at Queens revolve around the many organizations in which we are so involved.

Get Organized

The Queens boat, NKOSI, donated by Hugh McColl and Nation's Bank, sails quietly on beautiful Lake Norman, as Queens students take in the view and learn the fundamentals of sailing.

Kappa Delta was the first chartered sorority at Queens College and has been Greek House of the Year for four years in a row! Kristen Booker '93, Liesl White, and Amanda Pemberton are proud.

These Q-Flag members, Diana Archer and April Siegel express their points of view on the opinion board, located in Trexler College Center.

Professor Jane Hadley helps these drama students get organized to practice "Out of Sight... Out of Murder."

50% of Resident Students are Greek.

Alpha Delta Pi and Sophomore, Terri Smith helps explain Rush to Freshman and others who are interested in Greek life. Rush is one of the most exciting times of the year.

Junior Sharon McDaniel is a member of the Queens College Equestrian team. These students travel to and participate in horse shows all over.

Phi Mu Sorority boasts on of the most diverse Greek houses on campus. Members are involved in a very wide variety of activities from Sports to Music and prove that the only limitation to diversity is the imagination.

OASIS, led by Dr. Tim Burson, is involved in many community service activities from sponsoring teenagers at The Relatives, C. to their annual event of dramatizing the plight of the homeless.

Environmentalists Unite!

Rosalie Miklos and Billy Specht build a campfire for an outing with the Queens Environmental Action Committee. Billy also does Workstudy by picking up Recyclable materials around campus using one of the maintenance trucks.

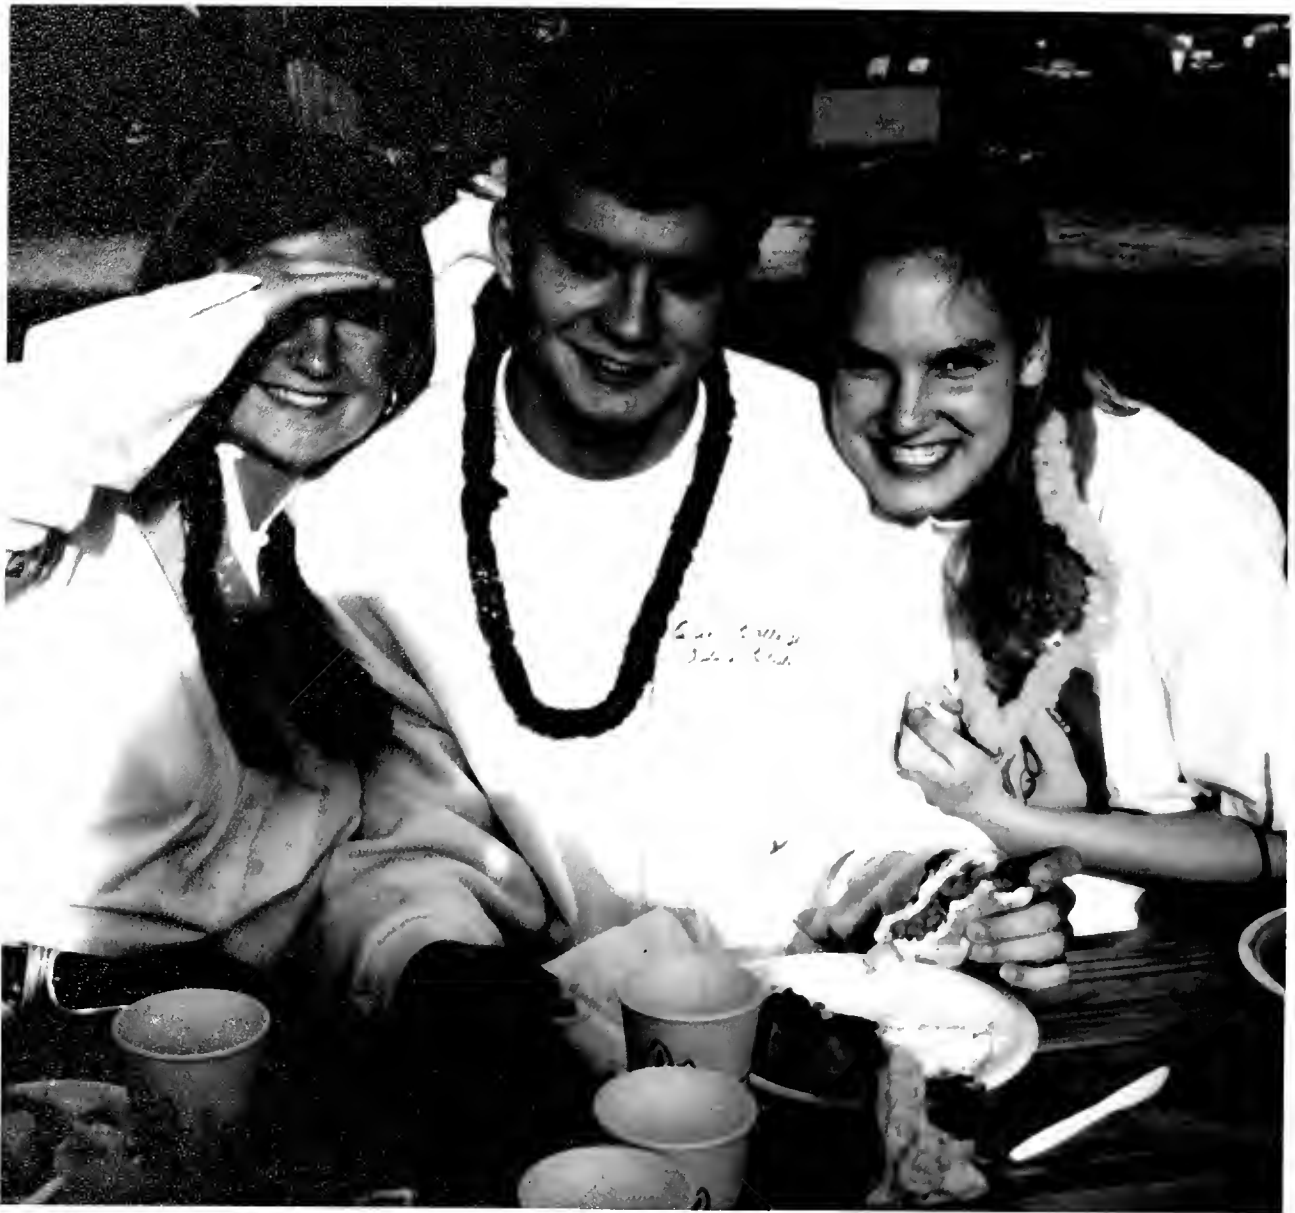

Senior Mike Murphy is active on campus in at least two organizations: Pi Kappa Phi Fraternity and Drama. He is also a Communications major who interned for NBC.

The Residence Life office of Queens seeks to provide us with competent Residence Hall staff who can both enforce the policies of the college and serve as counselors for students who need someone to talk to.

BEAUTIFUL LADIES — The Chi Omega members prepare for the Pref Party for Rush 4. Chi Omega was the first sorority at Queens to initiate its members.

The Big Kahuna!

Bill Neurohr, Resident Coordinator of Long Hall, is all smiles while dining with senior Lisa Michelbach and Junior Martha Heisler in the great outdoors at the Jimmy Buffet (sans Margaritas) concert held April 6 in the Residence Hall Quad.

Ken Higgins loves to experiment and sports a funky new "do" to the delight of his friends in Long Hall.

Senior Emily Burningham made at least one new friend during her Senior year in the form of this goat.

Talk about Greek Unity! Kristin Coke of Chi Omega swaps a roll of toilet paper for a garbage bag with Phi Mu's Julie Janorschke.

Below — Carrie Hunt works with her client on the drum. Sometimes coordination skills and math skills are combined. The drum makes the perfect learning tool.

Below — Through a one-way mirror, parents may watch their child's progress in the music therapy program.

MUSIC

Therapy That Works!

Under the guidance of Dr. Frances McClain, the therapy students learn to reach out to others through music. The music therapy program at Queens takes 5 years.

Right — Jean Williams interacts with Justin as he plays "Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star" on the piano.

Hands On

This Training Immerses the Student in the Therapy Sessions

Senior Margaret Hatch works with one of her students during a music therapy session. This is just one phase of a 30-minute session that is held once a week under the direction of Dr. McClain who is the head and sole faculty member of the music therapy department.

Celebrate the Good Times!

It was cigar-smoking time in June when Ashley Keith got married. Fred, Josh, and Anthony toast to her new life with special commemorative stogies.

The NKOSI, donated by Nationsbank CEO, Hugh McColl, has provided Queens students with many memorable hours of sailing pleasure and relaxation.

Alex Thomas and Emily Burningham really lucked out when they had the pleasure of spending an evening out on the town with Jon Bon Jovi and Richie Sambora. But we won't tell their wives!

an Burton actively seeks to find ways to ke our school run more smoothly. She is en here conducting a meeting between dents and staff.

Below — Jill, Keeron, Nikkeia, Lisa, Kath
 Marcus, Mychel, and Amy take time to pose j before going to sleep in their boxes in "Shan town" (aka the corner of Wellesley and Selwy

Above — OASIS continues to receive media attention for their concern for the homeless.
 WBTV Channel 3 was on the scene to shoot footage for the 11 o'clock news.

OASIS helps with the Fishes and Loaves canned food drive each year, donating food to the hungry in our area. Dr. Burson is pictured accepting food from Charlotte residents at the Coliseum.

his group of caring students make up what is the Organization Against Social Injustice and Suffering:

OASIS

Left — Keeron Emmanuel shows how much courage it takes to spend the night in a cardboard box — and he's still smiling, while Nikkeia Kerr puts her head down in distress.

Dr. Tim Burson is the faculty advisor for the OASIS organization. He generously contributes his time, energy, and good humor to the group. He is also a professor of Business at Queens.

Left — Mychel Ellis takes her mind off the night's chill to play a game of spades. Each year, OASIS dramatizes the plight of the homeless by sleeping on the campus lawn.

Above — WELCOME TO THE NEIGHBORHOOD! Everyone seems to be checking out the dimensions of their new "cardboard condos" before settling in for the night.

IF YOU CAN'T TAKE THE HEAT . . .

Scott Gerlach, Billy Strickland, Mike Register, and Maurice Sadler work hard to prepare the new mural for its unveiling in Ovens Gym during Homecoming. The mural was the Junior Class Project.

Hayxa Garrido is thrilled about her 21st Birthday present from April Amos.

Wallace Hall RA staff held several social functions during the year, including those wonderful coffee houses and movie nights. L-R: Stacey, Becca, Ched, Lisa and Robin.

Ertha Heisler learns the ultimate price of being on the Women's Basketball team. A dunking machine for her 21st Birthday in front of everyone who attended the Homecoming game.

"Pardon me. But do you have any Grey Poupon?"

Senior Angela Forero takes time out before driving to the beach to get some Grey Poupon Dijon.

Suzy Sulsona and Kristin Coke demonstrate what can happen if you go away to college and forget to brush your teeth regularly.

These ladies are having a wonderful time at Casino Party 1994. The theme of the party was "1920s Speakeasy" and students were encouraged to keep the "underground" gambling casino top secret in case the information fell into the wrong hands.

Is it a bird, it's a plane . . . It's SuperMartha! Martha Laura Harper demonstrates her great athletic feats by suspending herself between two walls in Wallace Hall, to the amazement of all her friends!

A Visit to the President's Mansion

Tradition calls that each Freshman is invited to the lovely home of Dr. and Mrs. Wireman. For the past two years, they have also been treated to some wonderful Ben and Jerry's ice cream. What a great addition to Freshman Orientation!

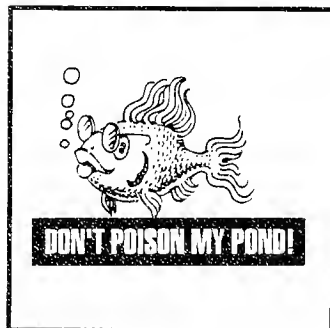

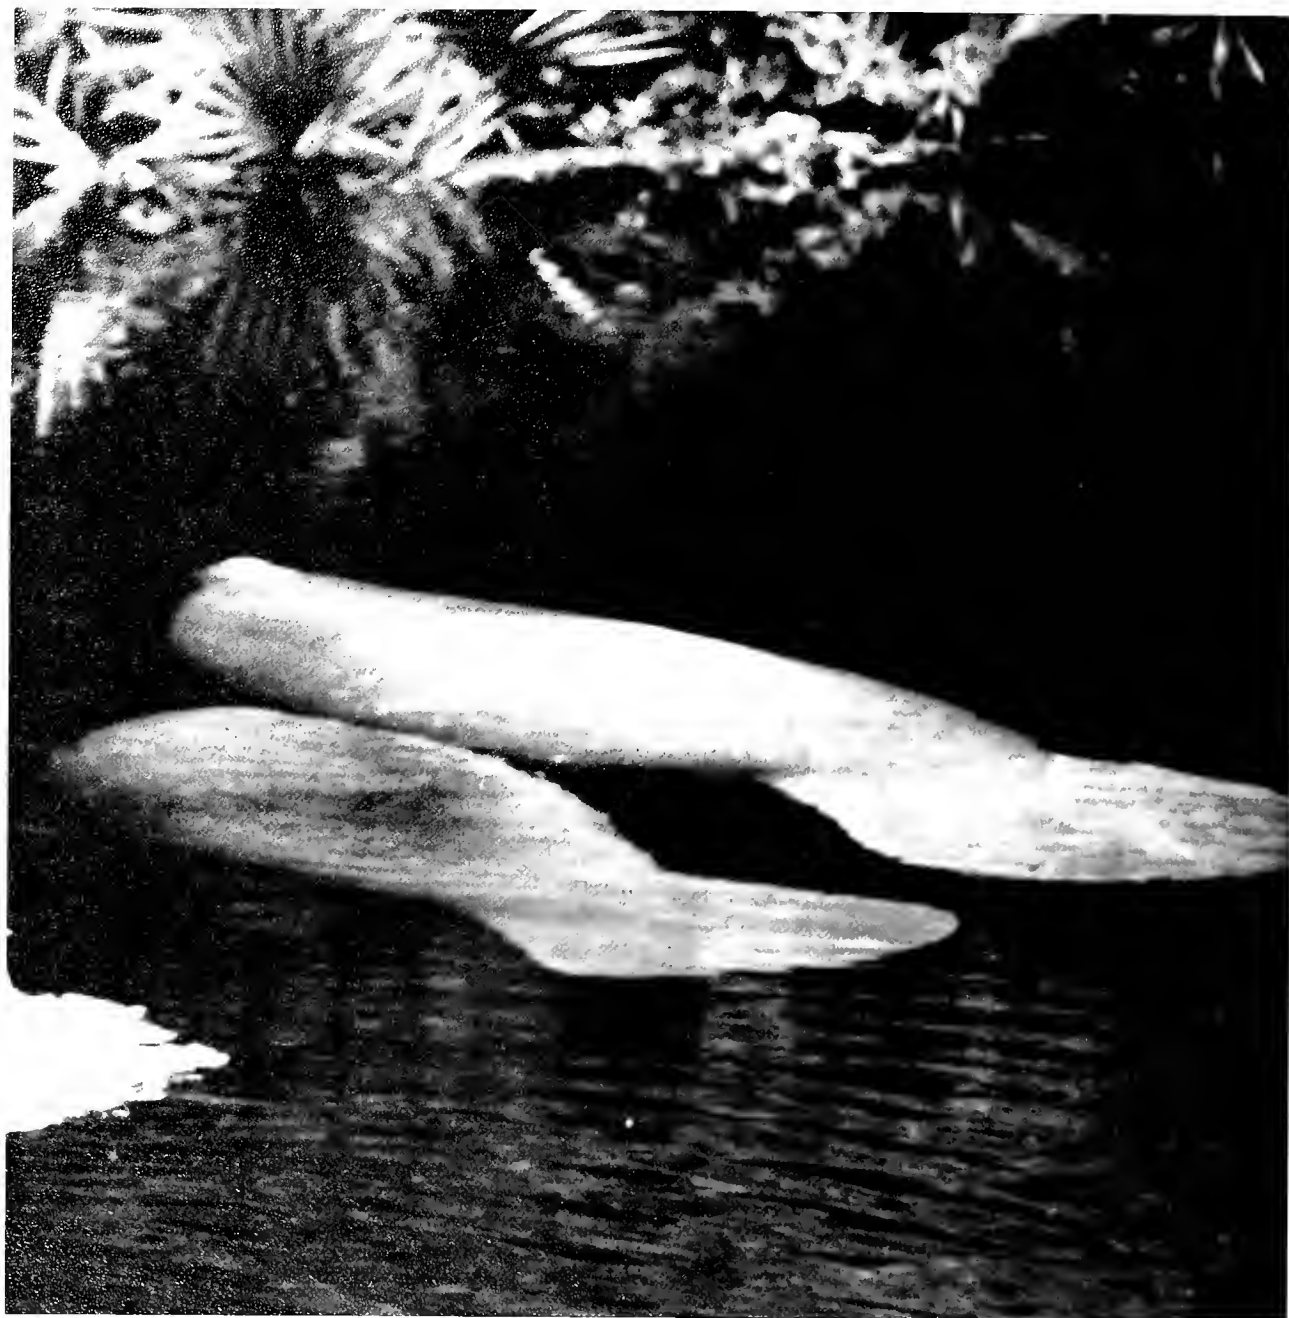

Casie Sutherland is a Sophomore Nursing Student and a member of Chi Omega Fraternity.

Junior Communications major Chris Prestridge is well-known around campus as the musical lead of his band, Mary Sunshine.
Chris is shown here playing for the talent show during Parent's Weekend.

Sophomore slump hits hardest during terms, as is apparent by the looks on faces of these hardworking second-year students.

The Queens Environmental Action Committee enjoyed its second successful year at Queens College. The club was started last year by then-transfer Junior, Billy Specht. This year the club has gotten larger visibility all over campus in the form of the Queens Recycling program. They have also adopted two endangered manatees.

Below — News of current events in QEAC is always available in Trexler College Center. All students are welcome to join this organization.

Queens Environmental Action Committee News

♣
DID YOU KNOW THAT

From now until the autumn season, you will have the opportunity to purchase a t-shirt for $1.00 each.

PLEASE WASH CAREFULLY

QEAC Annual Environmental Camping Trip

While the trip is a wonderful experience, it is also a challenging one. The trip will be a great opportunity to learn about the environment and to have fun. The trip will be held in the state park. The trip will be held in the state park. The trip will be held in the state park.

Above — Paddy Doyle is one of the lucky manatees adopted by QEAC this year.

Left — Seniors Chris Koch and founder Billy Specht sell CO-ED NAKED RECYCLING t-shirts at the Earth Day Celebration in the park.

COLLEGE UNION

Much Improvement in Activities Marks the 1994-95 Season

With bells on, Rosalie Miklos and Grayson Steele rush to decorate the Queens Christmas tree.

We feel a song coming on! Andrew Brownfield and Tony Hefner take the stage at Queens' annual talent show.

Some need sleep more than others, but these students couldn't even make it through the hypnotist show.

Esther Kim congratulates Vanessa Infanzon on a great talent show. Infanzon is the new Student Activities director at Queens.

After hours of studying for the Accounting exam on Thursday, A Duval and Van Nguyen like to help each other out at Midnight Ice as well.

In hopes of financing Jake's illustrious career, Nikkeia Keri and Billy Strickland take their chances at the roulette wheel

Amanda Pemberton and Jawanza Dunbar celebrate their winnings at Casino Night

ie Montgomery just can't keep her hands off the guy next to her ng the hypnotist show starring Chuck Milligan.

Jake Ray makes his acoustic debut at the Queens talent show. Jake is also a favorite performer at the Wallace Coffee House.

"He whose face gives no light, shall never become a star."

Julie Janorschke, Caroline Cave, and Tiffany Parker share a hug and smile, well, almost, in the Fall production.

Striving to gain the admiration from his father, Graciano Nunez's character in "Men and Women," tells his side. Meanwhile, Suzy Sulsona, the devoted yet degraded housewife listens to his story.

Caroline Cave and Mike Murphy wonder about Carey Malalus innocent ways in Out of Sight . . . Out of Murder.

Fall production and crew relax the show.

cast of "Men and Women," after a successful three-day take their final in call.

Throughout the year, Queens College theater provides a variety of entertainment to suit anyone's taste. For those who believe that "all the world's a stage" and want to participate, Director, Jane Hadley offers everyone a chance to take part, for whatever your interest, the most important aspect of Queens entertainment is involvement. Behind the scenes and the lights, behind the equipment and the costumes, but especially out in the audience, is active student participation. This is Queens College theater and that's entertainment!

Brian Watson and Carey Malaluan break from the amiable "Addie" and "Dick" while waiting to start "Out of Sight ... Out of Murder."

while backstage, Julie Janorschke and Tiffany Parker just can't get out of their bickering character roles.

"O.K. clear for take-off!" Billy Strickland as the loveable, Merrill, in "Audience," proves that you don't have to be young to have fun.

The "Audience" crew "has a barrel of fun" and takes the stage as Michael Frayn's modern-day viewer.

“

"I started out at Queens with a Biology major, and I can't believe how my views have changed since I switched to drama. Theatre is more than a college experience for me; it's a way of life."

— Suzy Sulsona

”

"Well, what can I say?" Diana Archer scopes the stage as Jake Ray scopes the girl next to him.

Caroline Cave gets carried away with the love of Maurice Sadler in Queens' Fall Production "Chinamen." Frayn's production was about glass shattering, door-slammings, hair raising dinner party from hell.

Sadler, as Barney, tries to convince his girlfriend's new boyfriend, played by Cave, oddly enough, to share a drink and discuss the cruelty of women. The two actors turn five character one-act into a two man show.

Alpha Psi Omega

Alpha Psi Omega, Queens' newest greek organization, was established by young thespians to support the theatrical arts on campus. Julie Janorschke, the group's president says, "We had a small group, but we accomplished so much with the theatre." The black box theater, given to the organization in 1994, has been used for Homecoming dances, art exhibits, poetry readings and student productions. Two student-directed productions, "Find Me" and "The Odd Couple," gave members a chance to present their skills to faculty and staff. Alpha Psi Omega's latest project, the Thursday night coffee house, gave students an alternative niche to study and relax, with local musicians and poetry readings.

Who turned off the Pure-a-Tron? Alpha's in "The Odd Couple" play their Friday night round Trivial Pursuit.

Anna Archer's directing project debut, "Find Me" discussed the mental instability of Verity Taylor.

Alpha Psi Omega President, Julie Janorschke, is the beaming director after the final run of her directing project, "The Odd Couple."

Seniors Face New Challenges

Seniors face new challenges and problems as they look at only a few months until graduation where they will be forced into the real world. This means, rent, bills, and facing a competitive job market. With the help of the Career Center, Senior Amy Bonamarte looks into internships to further her experience to enable her to get a better job after May.

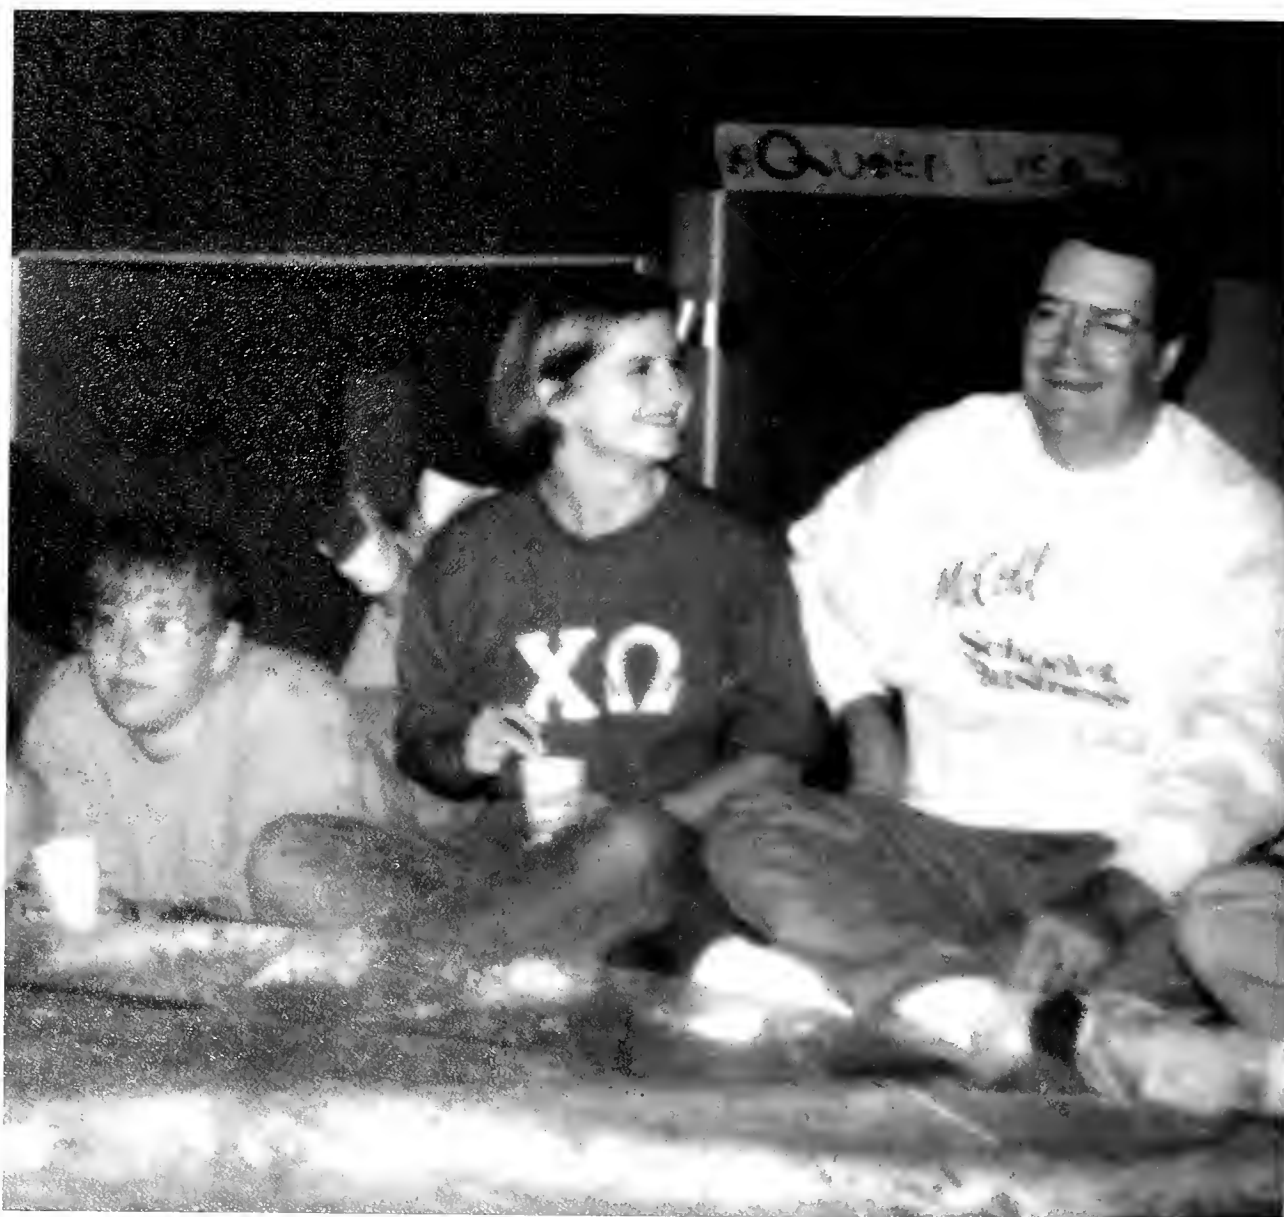

Senior math major, Nicola Blaha is the star of the Women's Tennis Team and will go on to graduate school next fall at the University of Oregon

Maurice Sadler and Meredith Wills act their hearts out for a Black Box theater production that was well-attended by students and faculty alike

Queens Alumni Rob Holt (center) returns to chat with students in the Trexler Courtyard. Alumni involvement is a very important aspect of Queens.

Dr. Burson and O.A.S.I.S.

Dr. Burson's commitment to the Organization Against Social Injustice and Suffering is greatly appreciated by his many followers who learn from him that we must stand up for the things we strongly believe in.

The Women's Basketball team can be found in the Oven practically at any time of the day. They are one of the hardest working teams on campus and it shows!

Bright Resident Coordinator, Cathy Curtis, enjoys her job and interacting with students and RA staff.

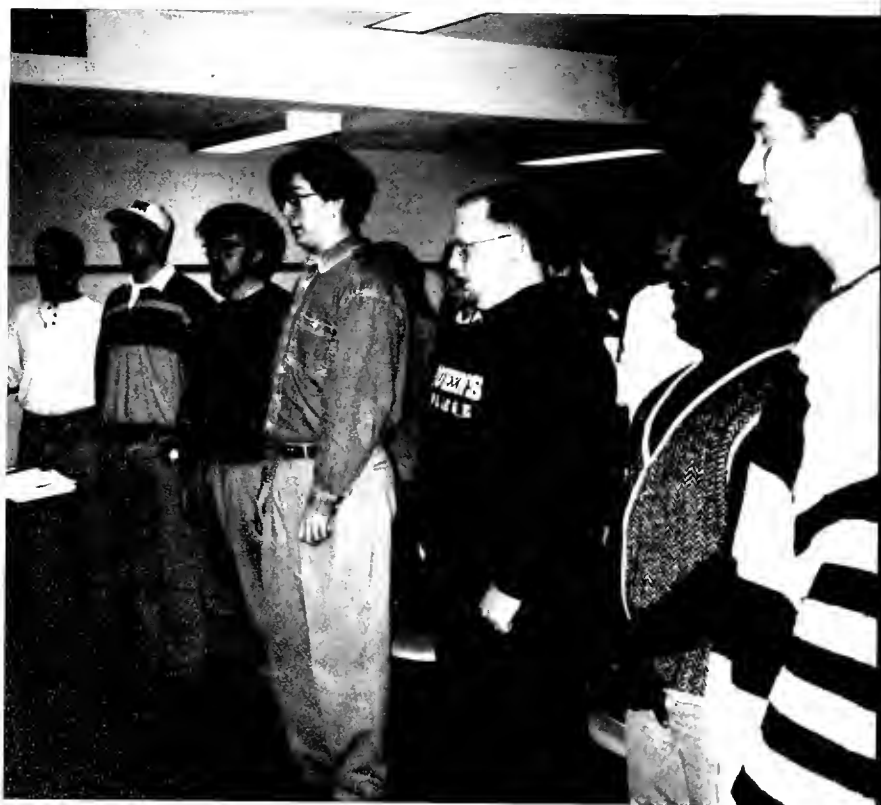

Chorale: J. Martin, J. Walker, J. Scott, L. White, J. Dean, L. Michelbach, R. Gittner, A.J. Quiring. Back row — C. Dewing, A. Wagoner, D. Patton, A. Duffield, M. Buscher, M. Phrame, J. Smith.

CHAMBER SINGERS: S. Benjamin, Lackman, J. Walker, J. Martin, A. Stout, Williamson, A. Duval, E. Kim, C. Dewi, A. Boger, T. Hefner, J. Gilliam, J. White Jacobs, M. Buscher.

Senior Amy boger serves as an accompanist for both the Chamber Singers and Chorale. She has also earned her place in Queens history for gifted performers.

Chorale Men: Jason Jacobs, Andy Parson, Jerard White, Josh Gilliam, Mike Register, Taij Johnson, and Tony Hefner.

Chorale and Chamber

MUSIC

These two talented groups perform throughout the year at various functions in the Queens College community. This year was marked by a performance at the home of President and Mrs. Wireman and a trip to Atlanta.

The Queens College Chamber Singers have had a very busy year. Their activities have included performances at Boar's Head, Spring Convocation, Parent's Weekend, and Commencement. Another great event for the chamber singers was their tour to Atlanta. The Chorale students have also served an active role on campus this year, performing at Parent's Weekend, the Moravian Love Feast, Benediction for Alumni, and a performance for the Board of Trustees, a spring concert, and at the Avondale Presbyterian Church. — Ellen Vance.

Director of the Queens College Chamber Singers and Chorale, Dr. James Glenn.

A

rete Staff 1995 WORKIN' HARD

“

"The hardest part of being an editor is organization. I'm the most unorganized, insane person in the world." — April Amos

April Amos has been on the Arete staff for three years and this is her second year as editor. She is a Junior Psychology major and spends her entire summer vacation finishing the yearbook!!

Maurice Ravenell and Kristen Koester help make executive decisions about which ads need to be censored before being placed in the book.

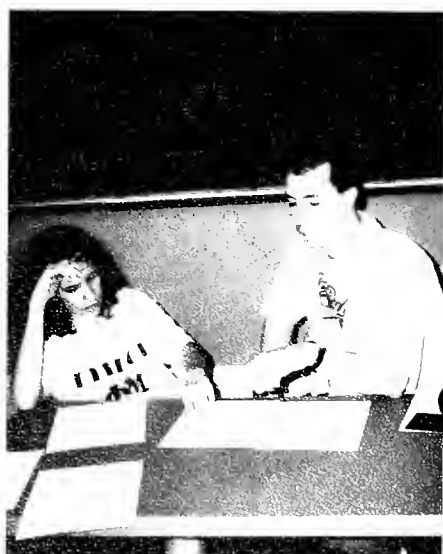

Matt Nicholson has made an amazing contribution to the sports section of the book. Matt works for the Sports Dept. at NBC-TV. He is shown here with Layout Editor Ali Permakott.

Staffers and Roomies: Stephanie Tripp and Kristy Jolly are always around to give a smile when the staff is under pressure to complete a deadline.

Miss Tiffany Parker, the Arete Copy Editor, works very hard to make life easier for the rest of the staff. What would we do without her?!

Back Row L-R: Raphael Seth, Jennifer Chris
Jason Winslow, Mike Best, Aimee Duffie
Advisor Professor Waite. Front Row R-L: Jer
Del Checcolo, Susan Stabley, Liz Childs, Hall, Dan McBayer.

Editor of the Paw Print, Susan Stabley, helps Raphael Seth correct his layout so it will be ready for publication.

The Queens College newspaper staff is working hard to put the next edition of the Paw Print together. Pictured from R-L is Professor Wendy Waite, Mike Best, Jenny
Del Checcolo, and Bo Hall.

Queens College Publications:

Signet, Queens College Literary Magazine.

The literary publications, Signet, is written by Queens students. The staff includes (front row l-r): co-editors T. Alex Thomas and Christa Jones. Back row l-r: James Brown, Chris Kohler, Andy Touhy, and advisor Dr. Michael Kobre.

THE Write Stuff

Greek Life — What a Rush!

Rush is an opportunity for students to join Greek life. It is a chance to develop friendships that will last a lifetime.

The beautiful Kappa Delta's give a high toast during their final party in hopes of a wonderful Rush. The Kappa Delta's once again came out with a great pledge class.

The Phi Mu's stop and pose to snap a quick picture with their new pledge class. With their new pledges their house only grew stronger.

For a long week of Rush Alison Porter, Martha ck, and Lauren Thomas stand outside of rooms and wait for the arrival of their new rs. The Chi Omegas warmly accept their pledges into their sisterhood.

The Ice Cream Social was not only a time to eat sundaes and socialize, it also marked the beginning of a very exciting week. It not only proved to be a great success but also the beginning of many new friendships

Katie Hickey and Rujunko Pugh strut their stuff at the fashion show. They were showing the Rushees exactly what not to wear to the upcoming Rush parties. Many attended the fashion show which was held in the Trexler Courtyard

Everyone fixed a sundae at the Ice Cream Social which was sponsored by the Panhellenic Council.
 The event was to help provide an atmosphere that was fun, and allowed people to get to know one another.

Emily Sherman, Emily Hanson, Gina Davis, Terri Smith, and Vicki Pate want everyone to know that these aren't their real clothes! Catching a glimpse of their new pledges just goes to show how their hard work paid off

ALPHA DELTA PI

These Sophomore ladies met for breakfast at Kri Kreme for doughnuts.

Above — Kristy Jolly and Kelly Hilton show Mandy Alford the kind of support that ADPi is capable of.

Left — The Village People pose before one of the parties during rush 1. This skit is a tradition.

Α Δ Π

SORORITY

"We Are Family" . . . These Alpha Delta Pis look delighted that they got so many wonderful new pledges on Bid Night 1994.

Homore Lorraine Crossley welcomes Mandy Miller into her new home on the Alpha Delta Pi was founded at Wesleyan Female College in Macon, Georgia on May 15, 1851. The Queens College chapter of ADPi is Beta Iota. The official colors are Azure Blue and White. Blue is symbolic of friendship, and white symbolizes sincerity and truth. The mascot is the lion whose nickname is "Alphie". The official flower is the woodland violet, which grows wild. The open motto is "We live for each other." The national philanthropy of ADPi is the Ronald McDonald House. The sorority does service projects and gives the money earned to the Ronald McDonald House. Alpha Delta Pi had an excellent 1994 Rush. The house made quota and loves their new Alphas.

— Kristy Jolly

Kristy Jolly and Kelly Hamilton show Mandy Alford what kind of support their sisterhood is capable of.

Chi Omega

Chi Omega Bid Night was a rocking good time for all the new pledges and members of the Fraternity. Seems these ladies have already bonded.

X Ω

Chi Omega Fraternity was founded at the University of Arkansas in Fayetteville, Arkansas on April 5, 1895. The Queens College chapter, Theta Gamma, was established on February 2, 1928. This year, the Chi Omegas celebrated their centennial with their sisters from UNCC. The colors of Chi Omega are cardinal and straw and the flower is the white carnation. The mascot is an owl. The national philanthropy of Chi Omega is READ ALOUD and locally, the Chi Omegas work with the battered Women's Shelter and Habitat for Humanity. Theta Gamma made Rush quota in 1994 and had a great year.

— Kristin Coke

Theta Gamma's President, Kristin Coke shows how proud she is of her little sister, Kendra Shepard, at the White House Ball held March 25, 1995 at the Charlotte Omni Hotel.

FRATERNITY

The Chi O's can let loose and have fun no matter where they find themselves.

The Chi Omegas were thrilled with their great new pledges from Rush '94.

White Carnation was a huge success and these happy ladies can attest to that.

X Ω

KAPPA DELTA

Kappa Delta Bid Night was October 29, 1994. All that hard work during RUSH really paid off when those great pledges ran down to house! Welcome new sisters! We love you! AOT!

Ann Hilary Hanly and Wendy Kolvek handed out T-shirts at the United Way Corporate Cup in Uptown Charlotte for one of Kappa Delta's local projects.

Kappa Delta sorority was founded on October 23, 1897 in Farmville, VA. and it was the first sorority at Queens to receive a charter. Kappa Delta's philanthropies include supporting the National Committee to Prevent Child Abuse, the Children's Hospital in Richmond, VA., and the Orthopedic Research Grant. Locally, Kappa Delta has worked with the Charlotte Family Support Center, The United Way and the Metrolina Food Bank. Kappa Delta is proud to have been named the "Greek House of the Year" for the past three years! Kappa Deltas have lots of fun times together on road trips and just hanging out at the end of the row!

As the Wolf, the Narrator and Sr White, Athena Mobley, Amy Bonam and Anne-Marie Caltagirone play their parts well in the "Into the Wood" RUSH party.

SORORITY

Kappa Delta loves their new pledges: Kelly, Ann, Amy Q., Jennifer, Rachel, Rebecca, Stacy, and Kirsta!!!

Sisters Liesl, Esther, Trisha, Charlotte, and Heather sing during the White Rose Tea.

The Kappa Delta sisters make a toast to another successful RUSH after the White Rose Tea.

K Δ

PHI MU

Bid Day 1994 for Phi Mu was a day full of happiness and excitement as the new sisters were welcomed into the house.

Phi Mu's Rush Director, Diana Archer and Susan Stabley take a "smoke break" from rush workshop.

Phi Mu Sorority was founded on January 4, 1852 at Wesleyan College in Macon, Georgia. It was originally called the Philomathean Society. Phi Mu's motto, "Les Soeurs Fideles" means The Faithful Sisters. Sir Fidel the lion is their mascot. Phi Mu's colors are rose and white and the rose carnation is their flower. The swing in the library circle here at Queens was placed in recognition of the location of the original Phi Mu Sorority house at Queens. The sisters of Phi Mu support the Children's Miracle Network and Project Hope as their philanthropies.

Liz Childs and Jennifer Sams together a Phi Mu scrapbook for Saturday's Pref Party.

SORORITY

Freshman Neisha Keeling shows off her new letters with her Grandma, Senior Margaret Hatch.

Lorainne Lackman entertains the new Phi Mu pledges on Bid Night 1994.

The Baby Phis on Bid Night: Amy Mohler, Neisha Keeling, Cara Riley, Cara Cahill, Erica Hall, Stacye Via, Lariza Fenner, Ivana Erceg, Dixie Griffin, Cindy Murphy

Pi Kappa Phi

The newest associate members of Pi Kappa Phi stand before the Great Pi Kappa Phi Seal. Pictured front: Doug Biggs and back L-R: Jared Rissler, Taij Johnson, Tony Terrana, Errol Rorhbacher, and David Costner.

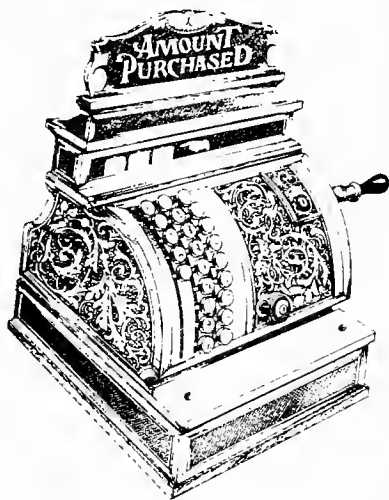

Π
K Φ

sophomore Jody Rimmer patiently awaits the next man interested in joining the fraternal order in Trexler College Center.

Senior Mike Murphy shows his Pi Kappa Phi spirit by climbing onto the ledge of McEwen Building to hang the official banner announcing Rush.

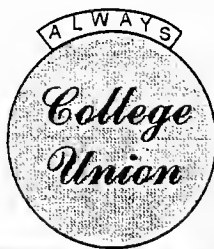

Boar's Head Banquet · Leadership Conference · The Great All-Nighter · Black History Month Trivia Contest · Cross Cultural Week · You Don't Know How I Feel · Women's History Month Trivia Contest · Leadership

1994-95

Student Activities

Something for Everyone

Beach Retreat · Chris Prestridge Guitar Concert · Sex Games · Orientation · Black History Month Coffee House · Exam Break Breakfast · Student Organizations Honors · Panel Discussions · Women's History Month Coffee House · Family Weekend · Speak Out Series · Comin' Out of the Cold Jam · Santa's Tree Trim · Adopt-a-Family · Xenopalooza · Poster Sale · Eyes on The Prize Video · Manatee An Endangered Species Lecture · Fun · Fun · Fun

Wherever There is fun, there's Always College Union

1995-96 College Union Board of Directors

Darrel Elmaleh · President Matt Dillworth · Vice President Jeremiah Skute · Secretary Erica
Eal · Treasurer Bo Hall · Billboard Mikal Ison & Billy Strickland · Cultural Co Chairs
Nikola Keri & Chuck Wendig · Film Co Chairs Dan McBrayer · Lectures Chair Amee
Duffield & Heather O'Neal · Publicity Co Chairs Andy Parsons · Recreation Chair C. Oriah
Barden · Religious Life Chair Cara Cahill · Social Co Chair Amanda Pemberton & Stewart
Varner · Special Events Co Chairs Chris Coleman & Bob Spidle · Technical Co Chairs

Congratulations, Diana!
We love you and will miss you!

Love In Our Bond,
Phi Mu

Gifts • Art • Body Adornment
From Traditional to Tribal

DREAMS
& DRAGONFLIES

Midtown Square 704-343-2888 * Cotswold Mall 704-365-9800
401 S. Independence Blvd. Char. NC 28204 326 South Sharon Amity Char. NC 28211

Congratulations, Becca!!

Praise God!! We Love You!

Baptist Student Union

Lisa, Jen, Talin, and Nikkeia.
The Four Musketeers.

Remember: Spaghetti Warehouse
Barnes and Noble
Casino Party
4 Weddings and a Funeral
Pizza & Ben & Jerry's.

KAPPA DELTA SENIORS

Congratulations to Angie P., Stacey E., Athena M., Sonya K., Amy B., Wendy K., Tisha E., and Tricia G.!!!! You will be missed!!

Love and AOT,
Your Kappa Delta Sisters

K
E

It's Rex!!!

Junior, Marci Turso prepares to dress up as Royals' beloved Rex for a game in the oven!!!

The joke's on Coach Coil as the Women's Basketball team play a holiday prank. Well we caught you!!

The Women's Tennis team lends a helping hand for the Special Olympics. Way to go, ladies!

Travis Wallace divides his time between being a student, R.A., Pi Kappa Phi, and Toy Army Guy.

April Siegel and Susan Stabley contemplate the meaning of life outside of Everett Library

Vicki Pate, Carrie Hunt, and Terri Smith take time to make a difference in the Special Olympics and share a smile with one of the competitors.

"Golly gee, I love school!" Scott Trowbridge doesn't look like a happy camper, but then again, registration does that to you.

"Ahoy there, matie!" Andy Parsons, Jerrod Frasier, Angie Hart, and Anna Edwards enjoy a clear day on Lake Norman.

Smile pretty for the camera! Robin Walker, Amanda Pemberton, and Keeron Emmanuel take a moment from their busy schedules to enjoy the gazebo

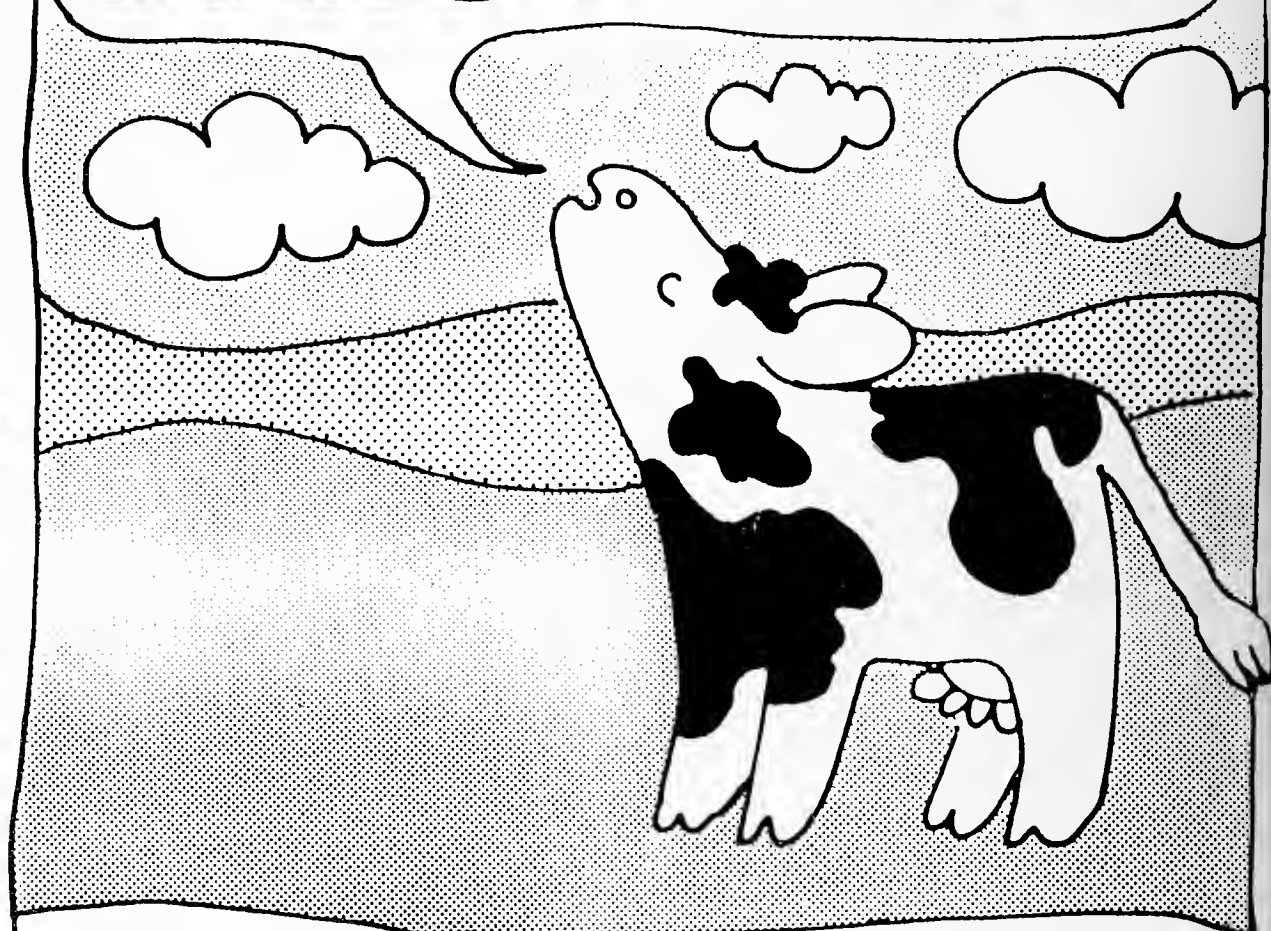

Julie Janorschke and Diana Archer share a moment together at Boar's Head

Ohhh, Petie! Pete Hovanac gives Emily Burningham a couple of tips on how to strike a sexy pose Patrick Morgan and Travis Wallace browse through the card catalog in the library. What a bunch of studious guys!!

Best Wishes From Your Friends At BEN & JERRY'S (R)

VERMONT'S FINEST • ICE CREAM & FROZEN YOGURT™

507 Providence Rd. • 333-1003 • The Arboretum • 543-8333
202 S. Main St. • Davidson • 892-0604

CONGRATULATIONS, TARA "ALEX" THOMAS

It's hard to believe that four years have flown by so fast! Your achievements have far surpassed anything we could have ever imagined. We are so very proud of you, our College Graduate. You have a bright future ahead of you. Have faith in yourself and keep reaching for your star! We love you, "T.T."

Mom and Dad

525-5110

116 E. WOODLAWN ROAD
(Near I-77 & Billy Graham Pky)

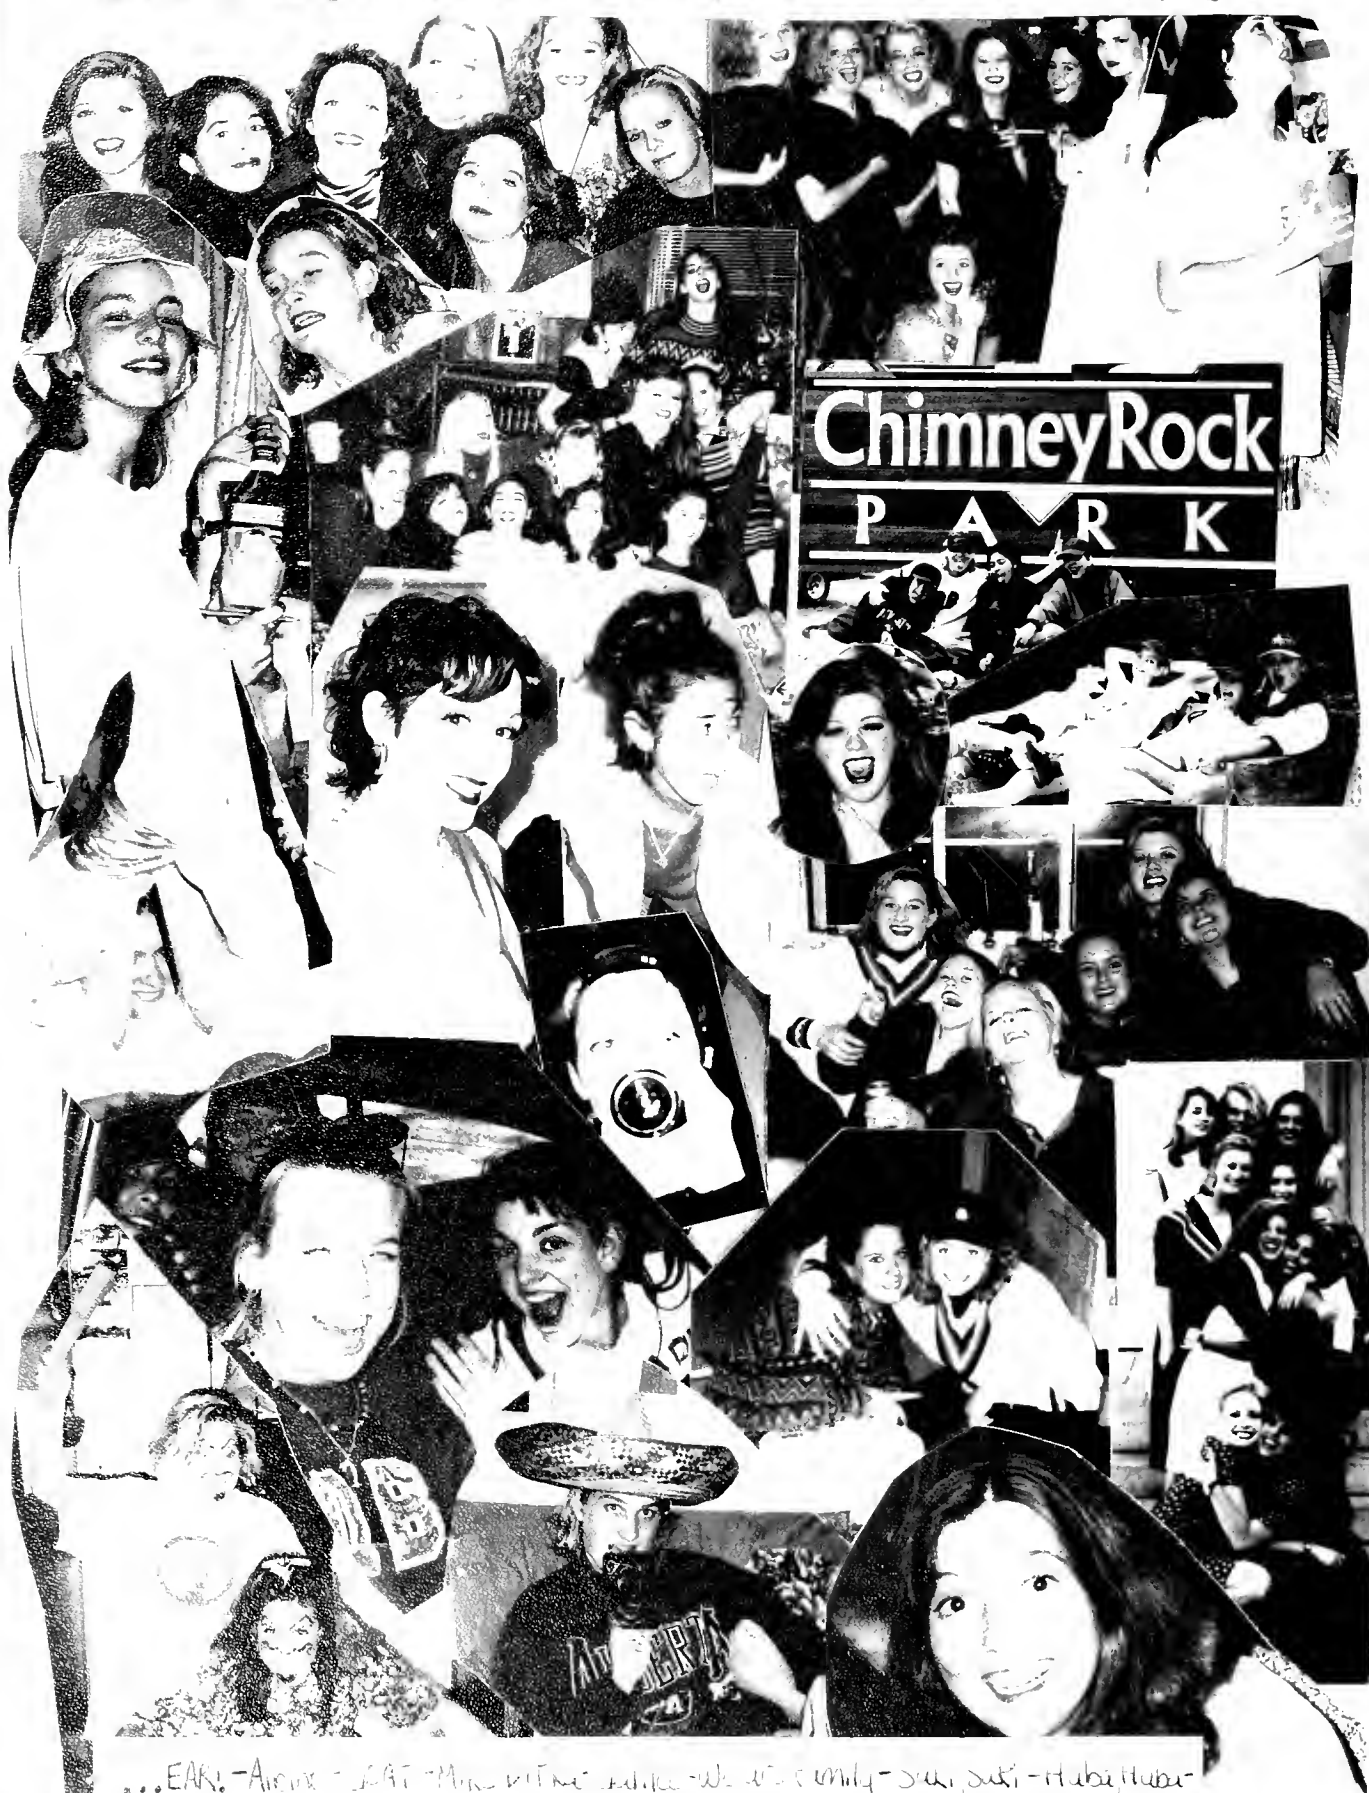

- Freshest Mexican Food
- Friendly People
- Great Atmosphere
- Authentic Cuisine
- All ABC Permits
- Take Out Orders

OPEN 7 DAYS A WEEK

Call About Daily Specials & Live Mariachi Bands

QUEEN BITCHES

1991 - 1995

...EAK! - Aline - CAT "Miss Mone" - Linda - We were Emily - Suki Suki - Hubby Hubby -
 - Hanker Down - Operation Smokescreen - Ideal way - Big Ass Ham -

Not just for one year but forever

Brian - Linda - ...
 ...
 ...

Not just for a year but forever

Below: A collage of black and white photographs from a yearbook. The photos depict various groups of students in different settings, including formal events, casual gatherings, and individual portraits. The photos are arranged in a layered, overlapping fashion.

JUST SEVEN BLOCKS FROM COLLEGE

Efficiencies, one & two bedrooms completely furnished kitchen, free local phone, color cable HBO, maid service. Ideal for parents and friends of Queens College Students 2800 Selwyn Avenue.

Manor House Aptel
377-2621

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR GRADUATING SENIORS:
JEN, CHRISTY, RUJ, ALI & GWEN

WE LOVE YOU. AND WILL MISS YOU DEARLY...

XΩ♥,

YOUR SISTERS

CHΩ OMEGA. A LEAGUE OF THEIR OWN...*

Thanks, for your Friendship, Love, and Understanding.

You Are Always On My Mind.

Carlos,
AKA Snookums

Congratulations, A-D-Pi Seniors!

Your Sisters Love You And Will Miss You!!!

MARRIOTT

MARRIOTT

The Dining Services Staff wishes you the best of luck for the future. We are proud to have had the opportunity to serve you. Good Luck Seniors!

THE BREAKFAST CLUB

Congrats, Dr. Burson! Arete
Dedication 1995!

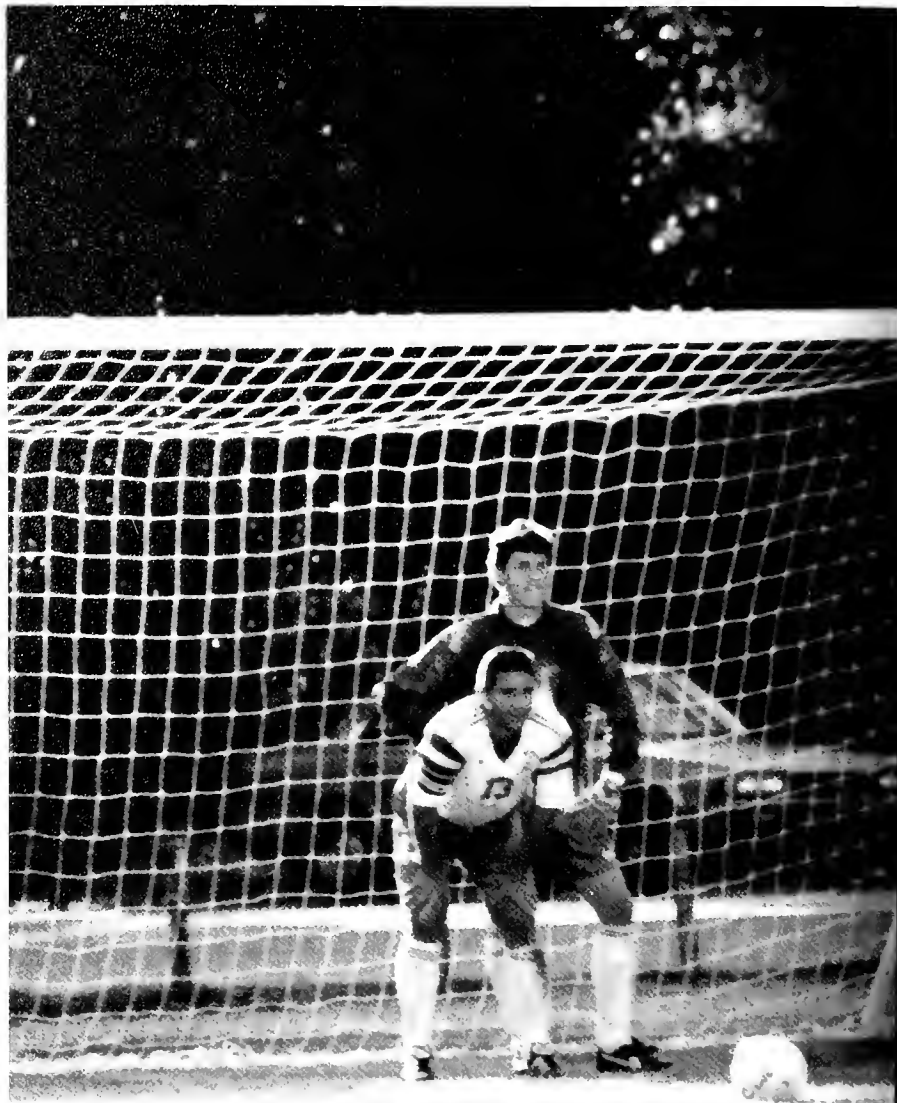

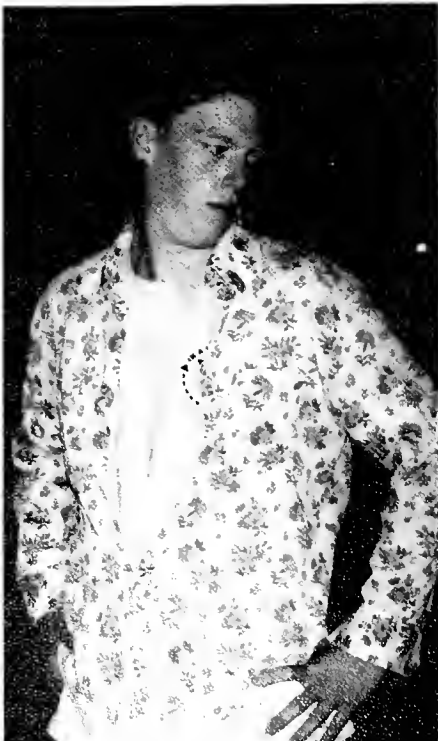

We're Proud You Are Ours.
Love, OASIS

Memorium

Holly Jean Boggs

December 1972-October 1995

Dear Holly,

You left us so suddenly and words can never express the loss we feel now that you are gone. To know that you were as loving as you were loved brings us peace and we hope that you have found peace in heaven.

Your Queens Family

That's All Folks!

III The 1995 Arete has been a major project for over a year now and has both brought us fun and headaches. We hope you enjoy it as much as we will!

This book would not be possible without some very important people: Susan Stabley has been my saving grace in the photo dept. for two years. Thank You So Much!! Kristen Koester, my right hand. You ran so many errands and just did everything for me. Tiffany Parker, who came up with our great theme and did so much without ever complaining. Maurice Ravenell, who drew the cover of the fabulous book before you. Joan Showers did some awesome research to bring you the time line — a dream of mine that has been in the works for two years! Carlos Pitts, thank you for always doing a professional job and making me smile. There are so many others: Robin

Walker, Nikkeia Kerr, Myrna and Susan Sulsona, Shannon Martin, Anne-Maria Caltagirone. If I've forgotten anyone please forgive me. You know how I tend to forget and lose everything. The Arete has been part of my life at Queens for thirty years. I have more than paid my dues. It is with both joy and sadness that I pass the buck to the next editor. I'm still very proud of the two books that I've edited. You may get them a little later than you would like, and I'm sorry, but I will not sacrifice quality for a hurry-up job on a book that you will have the rest of your life. I hope you agree! — April

Here we are!!!

It's been real!!!

5 0703 00160410 5

